When I was a child, coon hunting and selling furs was a must for many families to survive. Some families lived on wild game through the winter for survival for their families. You will read all about this in the stories that I have collected from avid coon hunters. I have lived in Schuyler County all my life. I have had a lot of things happen in my sixty-nine years. I have been run off the road by other drivers, also did things that people go to jail for today. I also coon hunted from the time I was able to. I have been lost many a night, ran out of gas on the river with other hunters, but it never stopped us from going again the next night. When buying furs, some people did not know one animal from another, as you will read in one of my friends' stories, who was also a fur buyer. If you have hunted at all, you will enjoy this book and will even bring some of your own memories alive. Not only is he a hero in Genevieve's eyes after crash landing the plane and pulling her to shore, but the sophisticated woman he thought was untouchable is rapidly transforming into a fun-loving hillbilly with a passion for everything. He'll play any role she wants as long as he gets the privilege of holding her. But when danger invades their private hideaway, the nerd and his beauty must fight side by side if they want to make it off the island alive.
