Rifling Paradise:

Rifling Paradise Jem Poster, 2008-02-05 A dubious character experiences a shattering change of heart during his specimen collecting expedition to Australia Edgy intense and engrossing Kirkus Reviews When past indiscretions catch up with Charles Redbourne a minor English landowner he is propelled from England to Australia where he plans to make his mark as a naturalist There his life begins to change dramatically not least when he meets his host's wayward artistic daughter But it is on an expedition in search of scientific specimens in the Blue Mountains that events take a terrifying turn Vividly conveying the unspoken codes of Victorian society this is a gripping tale of emotional and psychological reckoning that offers an inspired meditation on the relationship between humankind and the natural world Immediately gripping An epic tale whose figures in landscape encapsulate a turning point in history The Times Literary Supplement Poster's prose is at its best when describing the flora and fauna exotic birds especially the sounds and smells of the outback A stylish assured and thoughtful narrative The Guardian Violence seethes perpetually just below the surface all the more powerful for the author's restraint Rifling Paradise is one of those historical novels that continually confronts us with our present world the world created out of the brutality and disaster of the past but also out of its graces a world we may not yet be mature enough to save Historical Novels

Courting Shadows Jem Poster, 2009-01-27 A fantastically tightly written read every word novel As a psychological thriller it's as close to wonderful as anything I've recently read The Guardian In the winter of 1881 John Stannard a young architect is in self-imposed exile in a remote English village carrying out repairs to the parish church Arrogant and insensitive to what he considers superstition and sentimental attachment to the past he soon begins to inflict serious damage on the ancient building as well as on those with whom he comes into contact most notably the beautiful ambitious local girl Ann Rosewell This is the mesmerizing tale of a man who clings ferociously to his warped notion of civilized behavior unwilling to admit his need for love Set in a vividly evoked landscape and taut with foreboding Jem Poster's striking first novel pits reason against emotion progress against preservation and explores our capacity for invention and self-delusion the stories we tell each other and the stories we tell ourselves A dazzling debut Wholly involving from start to finish Publishers Weekly starred review Written in lavishly beautiful prose this is a consistently tense tale of rationality self-delusion and epidemic superstition Booklist

The Novelist's Toolkit Caroline Taggart, 2012-04-01 Novel writing is a popular hobby and this book will provide the would-be and starter novelist with all the tools needed to get started This title includes a thorough grounding in essential fiction writing skills and clear guidance on how to get published from top industry names It provides a complete glossary of terms and listing of all publishing contacts needed by an author from book publishers and agents to festivals and online links It includes tremendous resource of instruction and information that will prove invaluable to the armies of would-be and practising novel writers

Beacons Gregory Norminton, 2013-03-01 An incredible collection of stories for our shared planet from the likes of Joanne Harris Toby Litt and Liz Jensen A riveting and provocative collection of short fiction Beacons throws down the gauntlet to award winning writers challenging them to devise original responses to the climate crisis From Joanne Harris cautionary tale of a world where outside has become a thing of the past to Nick Hayes graphic depiction of the primeval bond between man and nature each story thrills the senses as it attempts to make sense of a world warping into something unfamiliar Original eclectic and inventive Beacons warns and inspires by offering stories that are as various as our possible futures All author royalties will go to the Stop Climate Chaos Coalition

Neo-Victorian Families Christian Gutleben,2011 Tracing representations of re imagined Victorian families in literature film and television and social discourse this collection the second volume in Rodopi s Neo Victorian Series analyses the historical trajectory of persistent but increasingly contested cultural myths that coalesce around the heterosexual couple and nuclear family as the supposed normative foundation of communities and nations past and present It sheds new light on the significance of families as a source of fluctuating cultural capital deployed in diverse arenas from political debates social policy and identity politics to equal rights activism and analyses how residual as well as emergent ideologies of family are mediated and critiqued by contemporary arts and popular culture This volume will be of interest to researchers and students of neo Victorian studies as well as scholars in contemporary literature and film studies cultural studies and the history of the family Situating the nineteenth century family both as a site of debilitating trauma and the means of ethical resistance against multivalent forms of oppression neo Victorian texts display a fascinating proliferation of alternative family models albeit overshadowed by the apparent recalcitrance of familial ideologies to the same historical changes neo Victorianism reflects and seeks to promote within the cultural imaginary      Transforming Anthony Trollope Laurence

Drama on the Edge Lisa Hopkins, 2016-03-23 Recurring to the governing idea of her 2005 study Shakespeare on the Edge Lisa Hopkins expands the parameters of her investigation beyond England to include the Continent and beyond Shakespeare to include a number of dramatists ranging from Christopher Marlowe to John Ford Hopkins also expands her notion of liminality to explore not only geographical borders but also the intersection of the material and the spiritual more generally tracing the contours of the edge which each inhabits Making a journey of its own by starting from the most literally liminal of physical structures walls and ending with the wholly invisible and intangible the idea of the divine this book plots the many and various ways in which for the Renaissance imagination metaphysical overtones accrued to the physically liminal     The
