basic knowledge and understanding of the Japanese region by providing information on the geographic cultural economic political historical artistic and religious aspects of Japan      Global Studies: Japan and the Pacific Rim Dean Collinwood, 2007-04-16 Our GLOBAL STUDIES Series provides students with comprehensive background and current information shaping regional cultures and countries of the world today Each volume features country report essays and maps as well as relevant articles from world wide publications Visit our website for more information and a complete listing of titles www.mhcls.com/globalstudies      U.S. Trade Relations in the Pacific Rim, 1987      The Pacific Rim, Second Revised Edition Peter N. Nemetz, 1990-01-01 As the importance of the Pacific Rim as a global centre of large scale investment development and trade continues to increase so do the potential benefits that Canada and other countries could reap as a result of an increased presence in this diverse region This book a revised and to a large extent new version of The Pacific Rim Investment Development and Trade 1987 integrates a broad range of current economic data concerning the Pacific Rim with some of the more important theoretical issues in the area of economic development and trade It demonstrates the paradoxical combination of strength and fragility that characterizes the emerging integrated Pacific Rim economy and attempts to clarify the nature of the framework and constraints that face foreign investors and trading partners The historical background of Japan s trade with other Pacific nations is examined in the opening chapter which is complemented by a new article outlining in detail the nature of and rationale for the profound change in Japan s foreign direct investment in the 1980s Other articles analyze trade in the ASEAN countries Indonesia Malaysia the Philippines Singapore and Thailand and discuss the emerging financial centres in the Pacific Rim New contributions deal with the policy environment for Pacific strategic management compare the financial centres of Hong Kong and Singapore as these face the challenge of strategic adjustment and repositioning in international financial markets during the 1990s and present a theoretical framework for comparing US and Japanese trade policies The second part of the book examines the critical role of energy in the future development of the Pacific Rim and its interdependence with other global regions New articles discuss the progress and prospects for energy cooperation in the Pacific Basin and the potential for further development of nuclear power while those dealing with the British Columbia coal industry and the changes in the energy systems of Japan and China have been updated to reflect current data Another new contribution seeks to explain the excess capacity in the coal industry coming to the conclusion that the experience of the past twenty years is unlikely to be repeated thanks to new technologies in steel production and the increased steel capacity of such Pacific Rim countries as Korea Taiwan and China Looking beyond its traditional ties with Europe and the United States Canada is in a particularly advantageous position to participate in the development and integration of the Pacific Basin Canada s geographic location coupled with its increasing economic and cultural ties to East Asia suggest that this country can have a profound effect upon and will be profoundly affected by Pacific Rim development in the coming decade While the risks may be high and the payback period long the potential return on investment is significant

Global Economic and Technological Change: Japan and the Asia-Pacific region United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Technology and National Security, United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee. Subcommittee on Economic Goals and Intergovernmental Policy, United States. Congress. Joint Economic Committee, 1992

On the Causes of Economic Growth Carlos Sabillon, 2008 In a sweeping review of economic history the author presents the salient facts of booms and slowdowns in the major economies of the world in 50 year intervals and demonstrates the weakness of orthodox theories The only factor that consistently causes growth he shows is centralized support for manufacturing which spurs the creation of new technologies which lead to wealth creation Since the earliest of times human beings have endeavored to uncover the causes of prosperity Step by step Sabillon tests the principal theories on the causes of economic growth against the facts of history Here economic statistics of the world are presented in a rationalized format that allows for comparison across countries and through time with a challenge to those who study them to determine with an open mind what the statistics show and what are the trends beyond cherished theories that suit various political purposes Tested against the historical data textbook ideas and theories consistently come up short Such analyses are highly troubling because they reveal an absence of correlation between theory and reality The data statistics illustrating the development of the world economy during the last several centuries were extracted from economic history and economic history books from publications of the World Bank the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development the International Monetary Fund the World Trade Organization the United Nations specialized agencies research institutes and country statistical publications and other books and journals Analyzing the data over geography and time Sabillon concludes that contrary to contemporary wisdom left to market forces alone the economy will not and does not flourish Only decisive intervention in support of manufacturing and technological advancement can provide growth This systematic review of history and test of accepted dogma challenges economic theorists to consider one part of the equation of economic policy that has been wiped off the blackboard in today's politically correct debates

World Scientific Reference On Globalisation In Eurasia And The Pacific Rim (In 4 Volumes) ,2015-11-06 This multi volume set focuses on a key region of the world which contains four of the biggest emerging economies a large number of highly dynamic small and medium sized emerging economies and one of the leading advanced industrial countries It is a region which contains some of the biggest hydrocarbon and mineral deposits in the world and some of the most energy and metal hungry economies in the world With half the world s population it is one of the most dynamic regions of the globe in terms of population movement providing a key focus of foreign investment both inwards and outwards with a high degree of technological dynamism The region plays a central role in the industrial supply networks of the globe In four volumes focusing on respectively foreign investment innovation energy and migration the set focuses on each of the main elements in the production system in turn capital innovation raw materials and labour Volume 1 studies patterns of interchange of financial and direct investment within the region focusing on governance the development of supply chains and technology transfer In Volume 2 the technology theme becomes dominant with a special focus on digital technology It includes technical issues like mobile communications standardisation developmental dimensions including the role of clusters and science parks and political economy issues like the rise of techno nationalism Volume 3 turns to energy issues not just issues of supply and demand but also key problems of climate change security and sustainability across the Eurasian and Asian landmass Volume 4 presents the human dimension looking at people in movement as workers citizens men women or colonisers Among the key issues discussed are the migration from country to town in China the greying of countries like Japan the effect of war on migration marriage migration human trafficking and the depopulation of the Russian Far East The set is a must have for anyone keen to understand the region whose manufacturing core can be described without exaggeration as the workshop of the world of the twenty first century

Geopolitics and the Indo-Pacific Region Ashok Kapur,2024-08-27 Exploring geopolitics of the Indo Pacific Region a major hub of global economic commercial military diplomatic and cultural activities in the 21st century this textbook provides students with an introduction to the existing debates frameworks and issues surrounding the Indo Pacific The second edition has been revised updated and expanded to explain the major build up of deterrence hubs during 2022 2023 in the Indo Pacific Region IPR The hubs have a clear focus on North Asia Japan and South Korea the Taiwan Strait and Taiwan and the South China Sea the Philippines Vietnam and Australia and India and the Indian Ocean littoral areas the Persian Gulf and the Bay of Bengal This edition takes into account the effects of the Ukraine Russia and Israel Hamas Iran proxies conflicts on the build up of Russia China North Korea Iran ties and the naval projections by China and Russia in North Pacific off the Alaska coast and in relation to Myanmar and Bangladesh and the Gulf Red Sea areas Within the purview of maritime security and NATO the present century is critical with the introduction of missiles and nuclear submarine technology into IPR and by the fragmentation of arms control and nuclear and missile non proliferation arrangements of the 1960s 2000 period This volume predicts that China s oft proclaimed rise to global hegemonic status is not inevitable because of its many economic social problems and foreign policy dilemmas Nor is World War III inevitable because no one seeks unlimited warfare but the regions in conflict will likely remain on a low boil However problem solving and crisis resolution will remain problematic keeping the 21st century at its toes due to the inability of regional powers to unite for the common good Complete with a list of further reading Geopolitics and the Indo Pacific Region fills a gap in the market and will be of great interest to upper year level undergraduates postgraduate students and researchers studying international relations IPR geopolitics Asian politics and Asian security studies
