Lotus Deception:

Nothingness and Emptiness Steven W. Laycock, 2012-02-01 This sustained and distinctively Buddhist challenge to the ontology of Jean Paul Sartre's Being and Nothingness resolves the incoherence implicit in the Sartrean conception of nothingness by opening to a Buddhist vision of emptiness Rooted in the insights of Madhyamika dialectic and an articulated meditative zen phenomenology Nothingness and Emptiness uncovers and examines the assumptions that sustain Sartre's early phenomenological ontology and questions his theoretical elaboration of consciousness as nothingness Laycock demonstrates that in addition to a relative nothingness the for itself defined against the positivity and plenitude of the in itself Sartre's ontology requires but also repudiates a conception of absolute nothingness the Buddhist emptiness and is thus as it stands logically unstable perhaps incoherent The author is not simply critical he reveals the junctures at which Sartrean ontology appeals for a Buddhist conception of emptiness and offers the needed supplement Exploring Site-specific Art Judith Rugg, 2010-02-28 Over recent years a greater diversity of spaces has opened up worldwide for the making and display of art beyond the gallery A new space consciousness has developed with an emphasis on the significance of the spatial Judith Rugg takes up a range of site specific artworks internationally located in countries ranging from China to France Italy and the UK Argentina and Canada to Australia Poland and the Netherlands to explore the relationships between site specific art and space set within its globalising contexts Through close inspection of works such as Doris Salcedo Langlands and Bell Phyllida Barlow and Vong Phaophanit Rugg considers how an interdisciplinary spatial theory can inform many elements of contemporary art In clear illustrated chapters she engages with very contemporary spatial issues including those of the environment cultural identity and belonging as well as experiences of displacement migration and marginalisation and the effects of urbanization and tourism For students and practitioners of fine arts art theory and history as well as those who are fascinated by site specific art this is an original and challenging exploration Lying and Truthfulness Kevin DeLapp, Jeremy Henkel, 2016-02-11 This anthology provides a set of distinctive selections that explore both Western and Eastern views of lying and truthfulness including selections from Augustine Grotius Aristotle the Mahabharata Confucius Kant Plato Sunzi Han Feizi Aquinas the Lotus Sutra Hobbes Hume Locke Bacon Nietzsche and more Hackett Readings in Philosophy is a versatile series of compact anthologies each devoted to a topic of traditional interest in philosophy or political theory Selections are chosen for their accessibility significance and ability to stimulate thought and discussion The Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence Gino LaPaglia, 2019-11-20 Strategic Intelligence is a form of meaning that promises the possibility of strategic advantage dignity the achievement of objective and the fulfillment of potential in hostile environments In The Cultural Roots of Strategic Intelligence Gino LaPaglia demonstrates that the strategic aspect of reason arising in human experience encoded as value and born by culture as a strategic resource has been encoded as values that have been memorialized in culturally authoritative sources in various Eurasian cultures for thousands of years These sources have validated a strategic orientation in the world legitimized the strategist as a heroic identity and transmitted a coherent world view that enables the practitioner of strategy to overcome asymmetric threat By excavating the provenance of strategic thought expressed in the cultural identity of the strategist in the most culturally authoritative mythological literary philosophical and religious sources and excavating the underlying strategic values expressed in cultural products LaPaglia demonstrates that the strategic aspect of human rationality is one of the most basic structural dynamics of human meaning and that the transmission of this strategic way of being and acting in the world offers hope for life's underdogs
