Crazy Age Jane Miller, 2010-09-02 Ever since I have inhabited old age I have looked and listened mostly in vain for news of what it is like for others who inhabit it too Naturally I m interested in its well known depredations the physical and mental ones that people in their forties and fifties so publicly dread And who would not delight in the theatrical props of old age the pills and sticks the shrieking hearing aids and the tricks for countering the loss of names and threads and glasses But that s not all I have a fond hope that in old age there may be new kinds of time and of pleasure perhaps even new kinds of vitality and that though we forget and muddle and fail to hear things there may be moments when we truly understand what s going on for the first time But then I ve always been a late developer Deeply thoughtful wry and resilient this fascinating and absorbing book about growing older is a life enhancing look at what all of us if we are lucky can aspire to

Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play Lynn M. Somers, 2024-12-26 This book considers the sculpture of Louise Bourgeois 1911-2010 in light of psychoanalyst D W Winnicott s 1896-1971 radical ideas regarding transitional objects potential space and play offering a model for exploring the complex and psychologically evocative work Bourgeois produced from 1947 to 2000 Critical concepts from British object relational theories destruction reparation integration relationality and play drawn from the writings of Winnicott Melanie Klein Marion Milner and Christopher Bollas among others bear upon the decades long study of psychoanalysis Bourgeois brought to her sculptural production that was symbolic metaphorical and most importantly useful The book demonstrates how Bourgeois's transformative sculptural objects and environments are invested in object relations both psychical and tangible and explores Bourgeois's contention that the observer physically engage with the intricate sculptural objects and architectural spaces she produced Each chapter focuses on a key body of work Femme Maison Personages Lairs Janus and Cells examining how these imaginative and playful objects are staged as embodied encounters in space and time to invoke the mutuality reciprocity and ambivalence of our object relationships Weaving a tapestry of aesthetic cultural and psychological encounters Transformative Objects and the Aesthetics of Play addresses critical relationships among Bourgeois's work and that of other artists from Pieter Brueghel to Eva Hesse It brings together practical archival and theoretical material offering close examinations of historically situated objects and analyses of their complex affects and spatiality Gathering critical perspectives from psychoanalysis cultural analysis feminist queer literary and affect studies the book extends its specific art historical scope to investigate the crucial roles that art and cultural experience assume in everyday life Art and Mourning Esther

Dreifuss-Kattan, 2016-03-10 Art and Mourning explores the relationship between creativity and the work of self mourning in the lives of 20th century artists and thinkers The role of artistic and creative endeavours is well known within psychoanalytic circles in helping to heal in the face of personal loss trauma and mourning In this book Esther Dreifuss Kattan a psychoanalyst art therapist and artist analyses the work of major modernist and contemporary artists and thinkers through a psychoanalytic lens In coming to terms with their own mortality figures like Albert Einstein Louise Bourgeois Paul Klee Eva Hesse and others were able to access previously unknown reserves of creative energy in their late works as well as a new healing experience of time outside of the continuous temporality of everyday life Dreifuss Kattan explores what we can learn about using the creative process to face and work through traumatic and painful experiences of loss Art and Mourning will inspire psychoanalysts and psychotherapists to understand the power of artistic expression in transforming loss and traumas into perseverance survival and gain Art and Mourning offers a new perspective on trauma and will appeal to psychoanalysts and psychotherapists psychologists clinical social workers and mental health workers as well as artists and art historians

Art, Education and Gender Gill Hopper, 2015-10-05 Why do girls study art and why do girls become primary teachers This book examines and reveals the powerful influence of the family the school and the state in shaping female identity and constructing notions of gender appropriateness It also discusses the status of art at school and the position of women artists in society Art and culture in the Nineties, 2004 Gray Matters Ellyn Lem, 2020-08-28 Winner of the 2021 Excellence in Research and Scholarly Activity Award from the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Finalist for the 2021 American Book Fest Best Book Awards Aging is one of the most compelling issues today with record numbers of seniors over sixty five worldwide Gray Matters Finding Meaning in the Stories of Later Life examines a diverse array of cultural works including films literature and even art that represent this time of life often made by people who are seniors themselves These works focusing on important topics such as housing memory loss and intimacy are analyzed in dialogue with recent research to explore how stories illuminate the dynamics of growing old by blending fact with imagination Gray Matters also incorporates the life experiences of seniors gathered from over two hundred in depth surveys with a range of questions on growing old not often included in other age studies works Combining cultural texts gerontology research and observations from older adults will give all readers a fuller picture of the struggles and pleasures of aging and avoids over simplified representations of the process as all negative or positive
