Antoine of Oak Alley: The Unlikely Origin of Southern Pecans and the Enslaved Man Who Cultivated Them Katy Morlas Shannon, 2021-11 The story of Antoine is emblematic of countless enslaved people whose lives and contributions have been overlooked Antoine the enslaved gardener of Oak Alley Plantation was the first person to successfully propagate the pecan tree yet he exists only as a footnote in the bigger story of Oak Alley Plantation His pioneering work enabled large groves of trees to be planted creating a lucrative commercial crop and though his horticultural achievement has long been legend virtually nothing is known about his life Historian Katy Morales Shannon utilizes extensive research and period documents to expose his story and explore the lives of the enslaved community in which he lived The life of this truly revolutionary enslaved man is revealed through the lives of his family and friends the community they built and the bonds they forged during their enslavement and their life as free people Louisiana Maurice Denuzière, 1978 Biographical Sketches of Louisiana's Governors Mrs. Eugene Soniat du Fossat, 1885 Cabanocey Lillian C. The Discovery of the Fact Clifford Ando, William P. Sullivan, 2020-08-14 The Discovery of the Fact draws on expertise from lawyers historians of philosophy and scholars of classical studies and ancient history to take a very modern perspective on an underexplored but essential domain of ancient legal history Everyone is familiar with courts as adjudicators of facts But legal institutions also played an essential role in the emergence of the notion of the fact and contributed in a vital way to commonplace understandings of what is knowable and what is not These issues have a particular importance in ancient Greece and Rome the first western societies in which state law and state institutions of dispute resolution visibly play a decisive role in ordinary social and economic relations The Discovery of the Fact investigates historically and comparatively the relationships among the law legal institutions and the boundaries of knowledge in classical Greece and Rome Societies wanted citizens to conform to the law but how could this be insured On what foundation did ancient courts and institutions base their decisions and how did they represent the reasoning behind their decisions when announcing them Slaves were owned like things and yet they had minds that ancients conceded were essentially unknowable What was to be done And where has the boundary been drawn between questions of law and questions of fact when designing processes of dispute resolution
