Love Held Hostage:

Love Held Hostage Jim Simmen, 2004-05-01 Held Hostage Ken Cooper, 2009-08 Former felon describes a succession of armed robberies getting caught and going to prison He says Jesus Christ can ransom anyone held hostage by sin

Love's Prisoner Elizabeth Oldfield, 2012-07-16 Hostage of the Heart Dynamic news journalist Piers Armstrong had survived being held hostage by terrorists in Central America for a year Now he was back home and the slow process of rehabilitation had begun Every night Piers returns to captivity in his dreams Suzy Collier had to talk Piers into giving an interview about his experiences and of course he refused to cooperate He was the same stubborn difficult incredibly sexy man that Suzy had fallen in love with three years ago Or was he Suzy couldn't help noticing subtle changes in him Love's Taken Over Té Russ, 2015-08-09 It can't happen again That's what Scarlett and Marcus agree on after a night together Neither of them wants anything serious but they quickly realize that their night of passion has done nothing but leave them wanting more So when Marcus suggests they become friends with benefits it seems like the perfect solution But things are not always as simple as one plans and soon they find themselves facing feelings they never thought they were capable of experiencing

Free Mother to Good Home Kay Taylor, 2011-11-14 Have you heard the words I never dared to treat my parents the way kids do today If you are a baby boomer or the parent of a tween teen or adult child not only have you heard those words you may have uttered them yourself If in this new age of childparent relations you've ever felt like a helpless puppy or kitten inside a box marked Free to Good Home if in spite of all your love and the care with which you embraced parenting your child has grown into an entitled and thoughtless power broker in your relationship read on Author Kay Taylor has studied sociology parenting blended families and personal growth for years in this bold groundbreaking book she explores the changes in our culture that she believes have given birth to what she describes as the E generation a generation of teens and young adults that feel so empowered and entitled that they often clash with their parents creating a palpable power struggle within the family This often leaves good parents alone depressed and completely befuddled as to what they did wrong Free Mother to Good Home comes from the heart and experiences of an everyday parent in the trenches Taylor offers a mother's perspective as well as a remedy for parental blues helping parents know what they can do to get their houses and their lives back in order

Love's Braided Dance Norman Wirzba, 2024-10-29 A moving exploration of the place of hope in the world today drawing on agrarian principles In this series of meditations Norman Wirzba recasts hope not as something people have like a vaccine to prevent pain and trouble but as something people do Hope evaporates in conditions of abandonment and abuse It grows in contexts of nurture and belonging Hope ignites when people join in what Wendell Berry calls love's braided dance a commitment to care for one another and our world Through personal narratives and historical examples Wirzba explores what sustains hope and why it so often seems absent from our vision of the future The vitality of hope he maintains depends on a collective commitment to care for the physical world its soils and waters plants and animals homes and neighborhoods and to promote the moral aesthetic and spiritual ideals that affirm life as good beautiful and sacred Engaging with such contemporary topics as climate change AI and social media and the intensifying refugee crises and drawing on the wisdom of James Baldwin Archbishop Desmond Tutu Robin Wall Kimmerer Martha Graham and others Wirzba offers a powerful argument for hope as a way of life in which people are intimately and practically joined with all the living

Love's Revolution Maria P. P. Root, 2001 When the Baby Boom generation was in college the last miscegenation laws were declared unconstitutional but interracial romances retained an aura of taboo Since 1960 the number of mixed race marriages has doubled every decade Today the trend toward intermarriage continues and the growing presence of interracial couples in the media on college campuses in the shopping malls and other public places draws little notice Love's Revolution traces the social changes that account for the growth of intermarriage as well as the lingering prejudices and false beliefs that oppress racially mixed families For this book author Maria P P Root a clinical psychologist interviewed some 200 people from a wide spectrum of racial and ethnic backgrounds Speaking out about their views and experiences these partners family members and children of mixed race marriages confirm that the barriers are gradually eroding but they also testify to the heartache caused by family opposition and disapproving strangers Root traces race prejudice to the various institutions that were structured to maintain white privilege but the heart of the book is her analysis of what happens when people of different races decide to marry Developing an analogy between families and types of businesses she shows how both positive and negative reactions to such marriages are largely a matter of shared concepts of family rather than individual feelings about race She probes into the identity issues that multiracial children confront and draws on her clinical experience to offer child rearing recommendations for multiracial families Root's Bill of Rights for Racially Mixed People is a document that at once empowers multiracial people and educates those who ominously ask What about the children Love's Revolution paints an optimistic but not idealized picture of contemporary relationships The Ten Truths about Interracial Marriage that close the book acknowledge that mixed race couples experience the same stresses as everyone else in addition to those arising from other people's prejudice or curiosity Their divorce rates are only slightly higher than those of single race couples which suggests that their success or failure at marriage is not necessarily a racial issue And that is a revolutionary idea Author note Maria P P Root Ph D is a clinical psychologist and past President of the Washington State Psychological Association

Love's Laughing at Me April Dominique Preyar, 2013-03-21 Love's Laughing at Me is a true story of a bright beautiful young woman with an incredible knack for choosing the wrong men Preyar has a special affinity for charmers womanizers and commitment phobes Her journey through hilarious hook ups and cringe worthy break ups spans from her teen years into her thirties The more she chases love the more elusive it becomes Each disastrous date tests both her sense of humor and sense of self Rather than pining for a man to choose her she resolves to simply fall more and more in love with herself

Karen Witemeyer,2020-06-02 Haunted by the horrors of war ex cavalry officer Matthew Hanger leads a band of mercenaries known as Hanger s Horsemen who have become legends in 1890s Texas They defend the innocent and obtain justice for the oppressed But when a rustler s bullet leaves one of them at death s door they re the ones in need of saving Dr Josephine Burkett is used to men taking one look at her skirts and discounting her medical skills What she s not used to is having a man change his mind in a heartbeat and offer to assist her in surgery Matthew Hanger s dedication to his friend during recovery earns Josephine s respect and when she hears of her brother s abduction he becomes her only hope for rescue Matt has stared down ruthless outlaws betrayal and injury but when a bossy lady doctor crawls under his skin his heart is tempted to surrender And when she is caught in the crossfire he may have to sacrifice everything even his team to save her Love's Mountain Quest (Hearts of Montana Book #2) Misty M. Beller,2020-06-30 Young widow Joanna Watson is struggling to make a new home for her five year old son Samuel in the little mountain town of Settler s Fort When she returns home from work to find Samuel and the woman watching him missing with no lawman in town she enlists a man she prays has enough experience in this rugged country to help Isaac Bowen wants nothing more than a quiet invisible life in these mountains far away from the bad decisions of his past But he has a strong suspicion of who s behind the kidnapping and if he s right he knows all too well the evil they re chasing As they press on against the elements Joanna fights to hold on to hope while Isaac knows a reckoning is coming They find encouragement in the tentative trust that grows between them but whether it can withstand the danger and coming confrontation is far from certain in this wild unpredictable land Fallen Hearts V.C. Andrews,2011-02-08 Now a major Lifetime movie event the classic story of the Casteel family saga continues with this third installment Proud and beautiful Heaven came back to the hills to rise at last above her family s shame As Logan s bride Heaven would savor now the love she had sought for so long And free from her father s clutches she would live again in her backwoods town a respected teacher and cherished wife But after a wedding trip to Boston s Farthinggale Manor and a lavish elegant party Heaven and Logan are persuaded to stay lured by Tony Tatterton s guile to live amidst the Tatterton wealth and privilege Then the ghosts of Heaven s past rise up once more writhing around her fragile happiness threatening her precious love with scandal and jealousy sinister passions and dangerous dreams The Heart of Time Sabina Knight,2020-03-23 By examining how narrative strategies reinforce or contest deterministic paradigms this work describes modern Chinese fiction's unique contribution to ethical and literary debates over the possibility for meaningful moral action How does Chinese fiction express the desire for freedom as well as fears of attendant responsibilities and abuses How does it depict struggles for and against freedom How do the texts allow for or deny the possibility of freedom and agency By analyzing discourses of agency and fatalism and the ethical import of narrative structures the author explores how representations of determinism and moral responsibility changed over the twentieth century She links these changes to representations of time and to enduring commitments to human heartedness and social justice Although Chinese fiction may contain some of the most disconsolate pages in the twentieth century's long literature of disenchantment it also bespeaks Knight argues a passion for freedom and moral responsibility Responding to ongoing conflicts between the claims of modernity and the resources of past traditions these stories and novels are often dominated by challenges to human agency Yet read with sensitivity to traditional Chinese conceptions of moral experience their testimony to both the promises of freedom and the failure of such promises opens new perspectives on moral agency

Philosophy of Love in the Past, Present, and Future André Grahle, Natasha McKeever, Joe Saunders, 2022-01-25 This volume features original essays on the philosophy of love The essays are organized thematically around the past present and future of philosophical thinking about love In Part I the contributors explore what we can learn from the history of philosophical thinking about love The chapters cover Ancient Greek thinkers namely Plato and Aristotle as well as Kierkegaard's critique of preferential love and Erich Fromm's mystic interpretation of sexual relations Part II covers current conceptions and practices of love These chapters explore how love changes over time the process of falling in love the erotic dimension of romantic love and a new interpretation of grand parental love Finally Part III looks at the future of love These chapters address technological developments related to love such as algorithm driven dating apps and robotic companions as well as the potential of polyamory as a future romantic ideal This book will be of interest to researchers and advanced students in moral philosophy and social and political philosophy who are working on issues related to the philosophy of love
