Caulfield reminisces on a life filled with emotional turmoil from a childhood scarred by hardship to an adulthood tangled in complex relationships. He reflects on the systemic barriers and coping mechanisms that coloured his world across decades, the pain and vulnerability, trust issues and raw humanity. There was love, yet it never fully conquered the chaos. This fictional memoir gives words to the underrepresented, following an underdog who refuses to give up. It explores the immigrant experience of working tirelessly to overcome discrimination. The narrator clings to his father's advice to study and gain knowledge as power. As he pets his bulldogs, he contemplates a past that shaped him for better or worse. This is the story of one man's perseverance through life's unpredictable journey.

Narratives of Love and Loss Margaret Rustin, Michael Rustin, 2020-05-05. Why do some stories written for children have so powerful an emotional resonance for both child and adult readers? This is the question addressed by Margaret and Michael Rustin in a book which offers a detailed critical reading of some of the best known modern British and American stories for children by writers such as E. B. White, Philippa Pearce and C. S. Lewis. The authors make use of psychoanalytical and sociological ideas in their approach, interpreting the stories both as metaphors of states of feeling often experienced by children and as images of the wider society in which they are written. A particular theme of their discussion is personal and imaginative growth in childhood and the ways this can be affected both for better and worse by separation and loss. In their detailed consideration of the narratives of the stories, the authors avoid theoretical jargon and concentrate on works which have interest and meaning for adult readers as well as children. Narratives of Love and Loss is an important and accessible book which will be of special interest to parents and teachers concerned with children's reading and imaginative play and to those working in the fields of psychoanalysis, English literature and popular culture.

Love and Other Stories Tibor Déry, 2005. Tibor Déry (1894-1977) winner of Hungary's highest artistic honor, the Kossuth Prize, in 1948, was first imprisoned in 1934 by the Horthy regime for translating André Gide's diary of his journey to Russia and again, over twenty years later, for his writings and political activities during the Hungarian Revolt of 1956 against Soviet occupation. Around the world, Tibor Déry's Committees formed by Picasso, Camus, Sartre, Bertrand Russell, E. M. Forster and in the Indian Congress Committee were among the many involved. Today, Tibor Déry is venerated as one of the most important literary figures of Hungary and like Chekhov, a master of the modern short story. Love and Other Stories presents some of Déry's finest work.
