Natural law concerns the good by considering the God-given purpose of created things. However, it is marred by sin, natural law theory suggests that the good can still be known and recovered to some extent. Thomas Aquinas famously argues that natural law involves all intelligent creatures sharing in (ernal) which they tend toward their ends.² Natural law theory often focuses on how reason or conscience discerns the good. Natural law can often emphasize the doctrines of creation and natural revelation. The conclusion from natural law ethics is that humans have some natural ability to discern the good. Yet, natural law ethics faces the risk of absolutizing one's cultural perspective as that which is natural and obviously rational. For this reason, Christians do well to consider ethics from various cultural perspectives.³ In the twentieth century many Protestants

Ronald H. Stone,2023-09-26 The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics addresses themes in political philosophy in the context of a crisis in democracy after the denial of the 2020 election by the Republican candidate for president The refusal to accept the results of the election divided the electorate and drove the president s followers to fail in their attempted coup attempt in January of 2020 Democracy is defended in Reinhold Niebuhr s writing on politics and in Barack Obama s use of the theologian s thought It is developed further in the political theory of Paul Tillich The themes of just peacemaking are reviewed in Paul Tillich s critique of John Foster Dulles work and in the author s critique of just peacemaking in the work of Glen Stassen Domestically the issues of race inequality ecology and healthcare are addressed from the perspective of prophetic realism The book concludes in terms of Alfred North Whitehead s philosophy of education and religion and a vision of the good president In summary The Political Crisis and Christian Ethics is a volume of American Christian political theory in a period of overcoming the trauma of 2016 with Christian ethics and political philosophy My Revision Notes: AQA AS Religious Studies: Religion and Ethics and Philosophy of Religion

Philosophical Study of Christian Ethics George Freeland Barbour,1911 The Acting Person and Christian Moral Life

Darlene Fozard Weaver,2011-11-18 What may we say about the significance of particular moral actions for one s relationship with God In this provocative analysis of contemporary Catholic moral theology Darlene Fozard Weaver shows the person as a moral agent acting in relation to God Using an overarching theological context of sinful estrangement from and gracious reconciliation in God Weaver shows how individuals negotiate their relationships with God in and through their involvement with others and the world Much of current Christian ethics focuses more on persons and their virtues and vices exemplified by the work of virtue ethicists or on sinful social structures illustrated in the work of liberation theologians These judgments fail to appreciate the reflexive character of human action and neglect the way our actions negotiate our response to God Weaver develops a theologically robust moral anthropology that advances Christian understanding of persons and moral actions and contends we can better understand the theological import of moral actions by seeing ourselves as creatures who live move and have our being in God
