Love In Chaos Spiritual Growth And The Search For Peace In Northern Ireland:

Love in Chaos Mary McAleese, 1999 In this work Mary McAleese shares her deepest beliefs about the way to lasting peace She provides a perspective on the origins of violence and also the painful cure for it She writes with the authority of a woman who has herself suffered sectarian violence but who has been actively involved for many years in the search for peace in Northern Ireland Her insights draw on deep religious faith the practice of meditation and the irrepressible hope that is born of these She illustrates her ideas with telling stories from her personal life and family as well as her political experience

Skard,2015-03-09 At a time when a woman Angela Merkel is arguably the most powerful leader in Europe and another Hilary Clinton continues to be at the center of the US political stage it seems that women have broken through the glass ceiling and begun to populate the highest offices of the political world Women of Power is a testament to that accomplishment offering the most comprehensive overview of female presidents and prime ministers to date Looking at over fifty countries and over seventy women leaders since 1960 Torild Skard herself an experienced politician examines how and why these women rose to the top and what their leadership has meant for women s empowerment throughout the latter half of the twentieth century Skard examines the achievements and life stories of the world s female leaders up to the current era She offers nuanced portraits that draw on a number of materials including many interviews that she conducted herself All of the women discussed are organized by both chronology and geography and Skard includes a number of helpful chapters that provide an overview and assessment of how different women leaders have come to power in different regions Overall the book provides a fascinating account of women s empowerment as it has manifested itself at the very top of the political hierarchy Love and Forgiveness for a More Just World Hent de Vries,Nils F. Schott,2015-11-03 One can love and not forgive or out of love decide not to forgive Or one can forgive but not love or choose to forgive but not love the ones forgiven Love and forgiveness follow parallel and largely independent paths a truth we fail to acknowledge when we pressure others to both love and forgive Individuals in conflict sparring social and ethnic groups warring religious communities and insecure nations often do not need to pursue love and forgiveness to achieve peace of mind and heart They need to remain attentive to the needs of others an alertness that prompts either love or forgiveness to respond By reorienting our perception of these enduring phenomena the contributors to this volume inspire new applications for love and forgiveness in an increasingly globalized and no longer quite secular world With contributions by the renowned French philosophers Jacques Derrida and Jean Luc Marion the poet Haleh Liza Gafari and scholars of religion Leora Batnitzky Nils F Schott Hent de Vries psychoanalysis Albert Mason Orna Ophir Islamic and political philosophy Sari Nusseibeh and the Bible and literature Regina Schwartz this anthology reconstructs the historical and conceptual lineage of love and forgiveness and their fraught relationship over time By examining how we have used and misused these concepts the authors advance a better understanding of their ability to unite different individuals and emerging groups around a shared engagement for freedom and equality peace and solidarity

Race and Reconciliation John B. Hatch, 2009-12-01 Hatch develops a robust rhetorical theory of reconciliation and applies it to contemporary national and global efforts to redress the racialized wounds and injustices created by slavery What emerges from this work is a profound vision for the prospects of meaningful reparation forgiveness and reconciliation in American race relations
