Mallan,2009-08-28 This engaging study examines diverse genders and sexualities in a wide range of contemporary fiction for children and young people Mallan s insights into key dilemmas arising from the texts treatment of romance beauty cyberbodies queer and comedy are provocative and trustworthy and deliver exciting theoretical and social perspectives Hollywood Bliss Chloe Rayban,2007-07-24 Thirteen year old Holly moves to New York with her superstar mom and finds trouble in the form of her father a new pet and a boy named Shug who is the son of her mother s boyfriend Moral Matters Mark Dooley,2015-07-30 Moral Matters A Philosophy of Homecoming is Mark Dooley s attempt to offer an alternative to Cyberia It is a book about home memory and identity At a time when people are rapidly disengaging from those forms of life which once bound them together it can be argued that our happiness depends on saving and conserving them We cannot flourish in isolation or by detaching from the social sphere which surrounds us We cannot truly prosper or progress if we choose to forget where we came from or if we dismiss our inherited moral wisdom And yet in opting for loss separation and homelessness it seems we have done just that We have opted for a rootless existence where alienation and amnesia are the norm This powerful and passionate book shows how the alienated postmodern self can become re rooted to time and place and restored to full humanity and happiness whilst moving in a virtual hyperconnected world In caring for creation conserving culture and saving the sacred we can once again make our home in the world and experience the consolation of moving from loss to love

Achampong,2011 Blues & Soul ,1989-07 Desire, Obligation, and Familial Love Makiko Nishitani,2020-08-31 Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork among Tongan migrant mothers and adult daughters in Australia anthropologist Makiko Nishitani provides a unique account of how gifts money and information flow along the connections of kin and kin like relationships Desire Obligation and Familial Love challenges the conventional discourse on migration which typically characterizes intergenerational changes from tradition to modernity from relational to individual and from obligation to autonomy and freedom Rather through an intimate examination of Tongan women s everyday engagement with kinship relationships Nishitani highlights how migrant women and their daughters born outside Tonga together create a field of relationships with kin and kin like people and navigate between individualistic personal desires and familial duties and obligations Their negotiations are not limited to a local frame of reference but encompass vast distances including relationships with relatives in places like Australia New Zealand the United States and the home island nation Tongan women manage these relationships across diverse modes of communication face to face interactions in homes and at church lengthy telephone conversations on fixed phone lines in kitchens and interactions on social media accessed on living room computers shared between neighboring households Relationships between migrant mothers and second generation daughters are suffused with warmth and empathy as well as tensions and misunderstandings Nishitani's work demonstrates the critical contemporary relevance of classical anthropological kinship studies and gift theories as tools that can help us to understand transnationalism in the digital age Through reflections on feminist geography social theory of technology Bourdieu's field theory and media studies Nishitani makes a convincing call for anthropologists to use relationships rather than geographical places as a site of anthropological fieldwork in order to understand the sociality of diasporic people Filled with rich intimate portrayals of diasporic women's everyday lives and the everyday politics of familial relationships Desire Obligation and Familial Love will appeal to students and scholars of the anthropology of migration of communication technologies and social media and of gender and familial relationships as well as to those interested in fieldwork methodology transnational and migration studies and Pacific studies Conversations Jack Selzer, 1997
