Intertwined Lives Lois W. Banner, 2004-12-07 A uniquely revealing biography of two eminent twentieth century American women Close friends for much of their lives Ruth Benedict and Margaret Mead met at Barnard College in 1922 when Mead was a student Benedict a teacher They became sexual partners though both married and pioneered in the then male dominated discipline of anthropology They championed racial and sexual equality and cultural relativity despite the generally racist xenophobic and homophobic tenor of their era Mead's best selling Coming of Age in Samoa 1928 and Sex and Temperament in Three Primitive Societies 1935 and Benedict's Patterns of Culture 1934 Race 1940 and The Chrysanthemum and the Sword 1946 were landmark studies that ensured the lasting prominence and influence of their authors in the field of anthropology and beyond. With unprecedented access to the complete archives of the two women including hundreds of letters opened to scholars in 2001, Lois Banner examines the impact of their difficult childhoods and the relationship between them in the context of their circle of family friends, husbands, lovers, and colleagues, as well as the calamitous events of their time. She shows how Benedict inadvertently exposed Mead to charges of professional incompetence, discloses the serious errors New Zealand anthropologist Derek Freeman made in his famed attack on Mead's research on Samoa, and reveals what happened in New Guinea when Mead and colleagues engaged in a ritual aimed at overturning all gender and sexual boundaries. In this illuminating and innovative work, Banner has given us the most detailed, balanced, and informative portrait of Mead and Benedict individually and together that we have had.

Intertwined: Essays on Art, Belief, and Humanity
Pasquale De Marco, 2025-05-08

In this profound exploration of the interconnectedness of art, belief, and humanity, renowned author Pasquale De Marco takes readers on a captivating journey through the realms of human experience. Blending philosophical insights with personal anecdotes and historical examples, Pasquale De Marco illuminates the ways in which these three forces shape our lives and our world. Art, in its myriad forms, serves as a mirror to society, reflecting the hopes, dreams, and fears of the human spirit. It has the power to transcend boundaries, speaking to our shared humanity and evoking emotions that defy language. Through art, we can glimpse the innermost workings of the human psyche, exploring the depths of our own existence and gaining a deeper understanding of the world around us. Belief, in its many guises, shapes our perception of reality and guides our actions. It can inspire us to acts of great kindness and compassion, or drive us to commit unspeakable atrocities. Belief can provide solace in times of darkness and uncertainty, or it can become a source of division and conflict. Yet it is an undeniable force that shapes human history and culture, influencing everything from our personal relationships to our political systems. Humanity, in its infinite complexity, is the thread that weaves art and belief together. We are the creators and consumers of art, the believers and the skeptics, the dreamers and the doers. It is through our interactions with one another that we create meaning and purpose in our lives. It is through our shared experiences that we learn, grow, and evolve. Pasquale De Marco delves into the ways in which art, belief, and humanity intersect, examining the role of art in shaping religious rituals and beliefs, the impact of belief on artistic expression, and the power of human connection to transcend differences and foster understanding. The author also considers the challenges that arise when these three forces collide and the ways in which we can navigate these challenges to create a more just and harmonious world. Thought-provoking and beautifully written, Intertwined: Essays on Art, Belief, and Humanity is a must-read for anyone seeking a deeper understanding of the human condition. With eloquence and erudition, Pasquale De Marco invites readers to embark on a journey of self-discovery and exploration, challenging us to reflect on our own beliefs, values, and aspirations. This book is a celebration of the human spirit a testament to the power of art and a call for unity and understanding in a world that desperately needs it If you like this book write a review on google books

Getting Saved from the Sixties Steven M. Tipton,2014-03-19 This groundbreaking study explores the ways young Americans today understand right and wrong how they think out their morality and how they live it out It describes contrasting ethical styles in the biblical utilitarian and personalist traditions of our culture first as they structured the conflict between mainstream and counterculture during the 1960s and second as they have shaped the transformation of these values in new religious movements since the early 1970s Coupling descriptive ethics with interpretive sociology this study pursues biography and moral dialogue with sixties youth who participated in a charismatic Christian sect a Zen Buddhist meditation center and a human potential organization est It shows the significance of these movements for the adherents changing ideas of their own identity their relationships sex roles courtship and marriage and their politics and vision of society It analyzes the cultural logic and the social location of their ideas which break down recombine and find renewal in the course of conversion
