Love Of Good Women:

The Love of a Good Woman Alice Munro, 1999 Eight new stories about what people will do for love and the unexpected routes their passion will force them to take A prim old landlady in Vancouver with a crime of passion lurking in her past A young mother with a secret life who abandons her children to be with her lover A country doctor in the 1960s discovered by his daughter to be helping desperate women his special patients These and other fascinating characters weave their way through stories that track the changes that time brings to families lovers and even to friends who share old intimate secrets about the prostration of love in a collection that is clear eyed about the clutter of our emotional lives The rich layering that gives Alice Munro's work such a strong sense of life is particularly apparent in the title story in which the death of a local optometrist brings an entire community into focus from the preadolescent boys who find his body to the man who probably killed him to the woman who must decide what to do about what she might know Large moving profound these are stories that extend the limits of fiction

My Good Women: Lessons of Love and Faith Julie A. McMurtry, 2015-10-13 Sometimes on the journey of life it is easy to think that we are the first to walk this path or that we are alone in our struggles This book calls us to reflect on the lives that have touched our own Thinking about the women God has placed in your life who are they And what have they taught you The hope is that when you read these stories you will find yourself reflecting on the women who have loved you protected you and formed you Like the women in the Bible they may have made cakes when their pantries were empty visited when you were expecting your children wiped your tears when the sorrow was too much or made you laugh like no one else can May these stories make you laugh and cry and reach out to the women whose lives are squares in the quilt of your life May these stories fill your hearts with gratitude for the women you see every day and for the God who made us all Theirs are the stories of faith hope and love
