

“There is no difficulty that enough love will not conquer: no disease that love will not heal: no door that enough love will not open...It makes no difference how deep set the trouble: how hopeless the outlook: how muddled the tangle: how great the mistake. A sufficient realization of love will dissolve it all. If only you could love enough you would be the happiest and most powerful being in the world.”

Remaking Ourselves, Enterprise and Society G.P. Rao, 2016-04-08 Decision makers interested in going beyond their own personal and professional interests and involving themselves in humanising their organization community and society should read Remaking Ourselves Enterprise and Society This book is about adherence to human values at an institutional level and its starting point is the belief that human beings have basic goodness which in turn is reflected in the desire to be of help to others and to do good Professor Rao introduces the Indian concept of Spandan Heartbeat Spandan is operationalized through a process of diagnosis discovery and development enabling organizations to achieve an optimal balance between what are defined as transactional transformational and terminal human values This leads to management and organizations developing sensitivity to the needs of others which they come to understand When such sensitivity becomes integral to its work ethic and culture an organization is able to temper its commitment to task with humanity and it becomes functionally humane Experience suggests not surprisingly that organizations that can achieve this optimal balance between results and relations achieve higher employee commitment and productivity and increased accommodative spirit that better equips them to deal with difficult times This exciting addition to Gower's Transformation and Innovation Series will enlighten business leaders governmental and non governmental policy makers management educators organization developers and researchers

Wisdom for Living Reynold Ruslan Feldman, Ph.D., former college dean, Executive Director of W, Sharon Clark, 2019-07-26 We live in uncertain even dangerous times If we were ships we'd be traveling in rough waters and dense fog Without a navigation system we'd soon be sunk literally. We need to know where and how to navigate to keep ourselves safe as we pursue our individual life journeys. Wisdom for Living is an invaluable resource and guide for strengthening, developing and accessing your own inherent wisdom nature. Each of us comes hard wired with the equipment needed to navigate the rough waters of life. This equipment is our intuition or gut feelings available to all. Yet like the GPS in a car or phone we need to learn to access, use and trust it. These short essays suggest how you can find wisdom in a variety of people, places and things. You are encouraged to keep a wisdom journal (WJ) in which you respond to a motivating question at the end of each essay. In this way you will create a personal handbook for guiding your life while using your inner guidance to deal with challenges. The Everything Wedding Vows Book Don Lipper, Elizabeth Sagehorn, 2008-11-17 Writing personalized wedding vows is a wonderful way to make the big day that much more special. Packed with ideas, insights and inspiration, this completely revised third edition helps you declare your love in a uniquely personal way. This book features information on how to develop meaningful personal wedding vows, incorporate a favorite song or poem, get family members involved, include children and more. For extra fun, this book also includes celebrity wedding vows and great love lines from the movies. This is the only book you need to create the perfect statement for their new life with their partners. This edition includes completely new material on ethnic vow traditions from around the world, vows incorporating holidays and nature, and vows for same sex ceremonies.
