Drive Henry Johnson,2023-04-06 From entering a high school music competition to being honoured with the New Zealand Order of Merit Bic Runga has an established place within contemporary popular music Focusing on her iconic album Drive and including informative case studies of representative tracks on the album this book provides not only an in depth study of one album but skilfully navigates Runga s creative work over three decades to illuminate some of the key stages of her career The book discusses the performer s rise to stardom musical style accolades and performance achievements Blending popular music studies with media analysis the book is the first to offer a detailed study of Runga s creativity and a close up study of her debut and critically acclaimed album Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker,2020-07-29 We think of our family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University

Dangerous Love Chad Ford,2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today s world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about reconciling with his father He explains why we disconnect from people at the very time we need to be most connected and the predictable patterns of justification and escalation that ensue Most importantly he gives us a path to practice dangerous love in the conflicts that matter most to us

The New Zealand Project Max Harris,2017-04-11 By any measure New Zealand must confront monumental issues in the years ahead From the future of work to climate change wealth inequality to new populism these challenges are complex and even unprecedented Yet why does New Zealand s political discussion seem so diminished and our political imagination unequal to the enormity of these issues And why is this gulf particularly apparent to young New Zealanders These questions sit at the centre of Max Harris s New Zealand project This book represents from the perspective of a brilliant young New Zealander a vision for confronting the challenges ahead Unashamedly idealistic The New Zealand Project arrives at a time of global upheaval that demands new conversations about our shared future

Love and Honour? David D E Evans,2021-06-17 Love and Honour Marriage for Peace exposes the ongoing phenomenon of Romeo and Juliet style romance tragedy families killing their own and other families daughters sons sisters and brothers in the name of family honour Focused on Northern India and Nepal the stories illustrate that despite India adopting a democratic constitution in 1950 the public murder of forbidden lovers continues Media reports of this phenomenon did not surface until 1993 but have increased dramatically since then Love and Honour Marriage for Peace has been written to seek a path from murder to reconciliation to acceptance and ultimately to marriage for peace
