Morris,2006-06-21 Meticulously attentive to the complex nuances and intricacies of what is too easily glossed as cross cultural communication these essays offer us a unique writerly perspective on what it takes socially and textually to reconcile the requirements of an effective shared discourse cultural studies with the intrinsic heterogeneity of our divergent glocal realities an awesomely satisfying and enlightening read Ien Ang University of Western Sydney How is identity produced in global textual environments What forms of narrative generate solidarity in a world in which globalization and trans nationality can often appear to be a fait accompli This brilliant coruscating book written by one of the most formidable and original thinkers in cultural studies examines questions of nationality identity the use of anecdote to build solidarity and the role of institutions in shaping culture Ranging across many fields including film and media gender nationality globalization and popular culture it provides a mind clearing exercise in recognizing what culture is and how it works today Illustrated with a fund of relevant and insightful examples it addresses the central questions in cultural studies today identity post identity the uses of narrative and textual analysis the industrial organization of solidarity and the opportunities and dilemmas of globalization Penetrating arresting and inimitable the book is a major contribution to the field of cultural studies It is of interest to students of cultural studies media film and cultural sociology Nation, Culture, Text Graeme Turner,2002-09-10 Nation Culture Text Australian Cultural and Media Studies is the first collection of cultural studies from Australia selected and introduced for an international readership Participating in the de centring of cultural studies considering what perspectives other than the European and the American have to offer the contributors raise important issues about the role of a national tradition of critical theory and about the cultural specificity of theory itself A key theme is the place of the postcolonial nation within contemporary cultural theory particularly those aspects of contemporary theory which see the category of contemporary theory which see the category of the nation as either outdated or suspect The writers tackle subjects ranging from the televising of the Bicentennial to the role of policy in film television and the heritage industry from the use of video technologies with remote Aboriginal communities to the role of ethnography in cultural studies The Atlantic Monthly, 1858 Atlantic Monthly, 1858 Relationality and the Concept of God Henry Jansen, 2025-02-10

Classical theism the dominant tradition in Christian theology has stressed the metaphysical concept of God i e God s ontological transcendence and independence from the world In this century however this concept of God has increasingly met with criticism On the basis of the Bible and new philosophical considerations it is argued that a relational concept of God better answers the fundamental concerns of the Christian faith In this book the author investigates the questions of whether one can conceive of God apart from the metaphysical attributes and whether reflection on the biblical depiction of God leads necessarily to a relational concept of God The author explores the questions by examining the relational concepts of God found in two contemporary German theologians J rgen Moltmann and Wolfhart Pannenberg and uses the divine attribute of immutability as a focus for the discussion He argues that the relational concept of God presupposes another metaphysical conception of God which raises problems as serious as those in classical theism and that the Bible itself because of its nature as a narrative text is ambiguous in many respects as far as God is concerned A truly Christian doctrine of God must take both the metaphysical and relational aspects of God into account The Image of God in an Image Driven Age Beth Felker Jones, Jeffrey W. Barbeau, 2016-03-08 Humans are created in the image of God yet by choosing to rebel against God we become unfaithful bearers of his image But Jesus who is the image of God restores the divine image in us At the intersection of theology and culture these essays offer a unified vision of what it means to be truly human and created in the divine image in the world today Credit and Faith Philip Goodchild, 2019-11-12 In line with the development of political theology and economic theology in contemporary European thought Credit and Faith offers a critical account of the faith structures within economic life and institutions Goodchild s ground breaking work provides a philosophical appropriation of the economic dimension of the New Testament and fresh theological philosophical and economic perspectives on the present Covering the theological roots of the way economic life was and is articulated the philosophical roots of value and debt and the economic roots of credit and creation this book charts the emergence of early theories of capital and banking through a consideration of credit It draws on some neglected historical figures as well as Jules Lagneau Simone Weil the Kantian problem of freedom and necessity and a critical reading of the early Marx and of Nietzsche s genealogy through this Goodchild explains how the Financial Revolution was able to conceal the credit economy which was its foundation and foster the pursuit of self interest instead of the common good This innovative interweaving of theology philosophy and economics constructs a new metaphysical framework for a critical account of the faith structures within economic life and institutions and returns to the practice of philosophy as a way of life a practical engaged worldly discipline Easier Said Than Done TJ

Time Tide and History Eleanor Dark s Fiction is the first book length edited collection of scholarly essays to treat the full span of Eleanor Dark s fiction advancing a recent revival of critical and scholarly interest in Dark s writing This volume not only establishes a new view of Dark s fiction as a whole but also reflects on the ways in which her fiction speaks to our present moment in the context of a globally fraught post pandemic Anthropocene era Above all the revisiting of Dark s fiction is mandated by a desire to recognise the ways in which it anticipates vital debates in Australian literary and national culture today about settler colonialism and its legacies and with regard to the histories condition and status of Australia s First Nations people This volume interweaves varied topical themes from formal debates about modernism historical realism and melodrama to questions about modernity's time and space about gender and cultural difference and about the specifics of built and natural environments Time Tide and History intentionally loosens the conventions of literary scholarship by including other kinds of work alongside critical and scholarly readings a written dialogue between two contemporary historians about Dark's legacy and a biographical piece on the life and role of Eleanor Dark's husband Eric Payten Dark Bringing together the interwar fiction's feminist and modernist dimensions with the historical turn of The Timeless Land trilogy the essays in Time Tide and History collectively pursue ethical and political questions while teasing out the distinctive thematic formal and aesthetic features of Dark's fiction Shakespeare and Contemporary Fiction Barbara L.
