French frontier at Givet the people had advanced but little Legend and history poetry and fiction provoked an interesting reminiscence at almost every turn for it was indeed a land that fascinated those used to the mad hurry of our modern money making life Not far from quaint old world Dinant with its church with the slate covered bulgy spire nestling beneath its fortress crowned rock its narrow cobbled streets and its picturesque little Place lay the pretty riverside village of Anseremme the favourite resort of artists being situated at the junction of the Lesse one of the loveliest of rivers with the Meuse

Perhaps It's Love Dennis L. Siluk, 2004-12 Perhaps it s Love the original element which gives this book its name concerns four young adults that play a vital role to follow their hearts sometimes without adequate preparation or the appropriate equipment as a test of the will This of course nearly crushes each person s spirit In one way or another each youth is linked to each other ages between 18 and 21 The novel is primarily concerned with choices in love in some cases a manifesto about its dangers At the end it it must be said nothing was tolerable but the best No one was without sin Four youths 1967-68 while being in the process of growth get stirred up quite a lot some even lost in the commotion of events while feelings become nourished and intensified all aching for love in their own way A lesson might well be learned if they can only harness their crying hearts but first unhappiness has to be conquered part of the theme and plot The story has a shy charm to it a quick gaiety and objective tenderness It is dramatic it has an exploring inner mind Many parts of this book are based on actual events transformed into historical fiction
