Frenzy! Neil Root, 2012-08-31 Murder has transfixed the popular press for centuries But it was only in the second half of the twentieth century that murder began saturating front pages and making these monsters what we today recognise as modern celebrities It was three serial killers caught and executed in the few years after the end of the Second World War who precipitated a level of public furore never seen before Neville Heath a charming sadist who killed two women John George Haigh the Acid Bath Killer who killed between six and nine men and women and John Christie the ineffectual necrophile who killed between six and eight women The modern news coverage finds its roots with these three men whom the crime historian Donald Thomas called the Postwar Psychopaths Their crimes were the first to generate a tabloid frenzy the like of which we see all around us today It was not only the murderers who captured the public s imagination It was the detectives who hunted them down the judiciary who tried them and the man who executed them the legendary hangman Albert Pierrepoint This book tells the stories of these three infamous serial killers against the backdrop of the tabloid frenzy that surrounded them Standard Catalog for Public Libraries H.W.
