 Radical Ordinary Stanley Hauerwas, Romand Coles, 2008-01-01 In Christianity Democracy and the Radical Ordinary theologian Stanley Hauerwas and political theorist Romand Coles reflect about possibilities and practices of radical democracy and radical ecclesia that take form in the textures of relational care for the radical ordinary They seek to shift political and theological imaginations beyond the limits of contemporary political formations such as global capitalism the mega state and empire which they argue are based upon both the denial and production of death Hauerwas and Coles call us to a revolutionary politics of wild patience that seeks transformation through attentive practices of listening relationship building and a careful tending to places common goods and diverse possibilities for flourishing Both authors translate back and forth across as well as dwell in the tensions between the languages of radical democracy and of trial cross and resurrection Engaging each other through a variety of genres from essays to letters to cowriting and dialogue Hauerwas and Coles seek to enact a politics that is evangelical in its radical receptivity across strange differences and that cultivates power in relation to vulnerability The authors argue that there is a strong relation between hope and imagination as well as between imagination and the encounter with and memory of those who have lived with receptive generosity toward the radical ordinary Hence throughout this book they think extensively in relation to specific lives and practices from Ella Baker and the early Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee organizing efforts for beloved community and civil rights to L Arche communities founded by Jean Vanier to contemporary faith based radical democratic organizing efforts in dozens of cities by the Industrial Areas Foundation Pushing and pulling each other into new and insightful journeys of political imagination this

Grace of Being Human R Gordon Zyne, 2025-05-15 Radical Christian Humanism is a rich spiritually grounded philosophy that combines the dignity and worth of every human being with a radical commitment to justice compassion and the transforming love of Christ It is deeply rooted in Christian theology but pushes beyond conventional religiosity to engage the full reality of human existence especially the suffering the marginalized the oppressed and the forgotten It s radical not because it s extreme or rebellious for its own sake but because it goes to the root from Latin radix of what it means to be human in God s image and what it means to live that truth in the world The Meditations of Harmony and Dissonance are complementary to the affirmations and commitments of Radical Christian Humanism They are like Zen Koans or poems from the Desert Fathers They do not close like doors or resolve like symphonies They drift like smoke from a censer held by a blind angel in a forgotten chapel They speak in tongues of wind and thunder laughter and sobbing And through it all harmony dissonance the One Voice murmurs Be human Be holy Be still The Living Age ,1868 American Gardening ,1893
