Out of Debt, Out of Danger Jerry Voorhis,1943 Out of Debt, Out of Danger Horace Jeremiah Voorhis,1943 A Free Nation Deep in Debt James MacDonald,James Macdonald,2006-05-22 For the greater part of recorded history the most successful and powerful states were autocracies yet now the world is increasingly dominated by democracies In A Free Nation Deep in Debt James Macdonald provides a novel answer for how and why this political transformation occurred The pressures of war finance led ancient states to store up treasure and treasure accumulation invariably favored autocratic states But when the art of public borrowing was developed by the city states of medieval Italy as a democratic alternative to the treasure chest the balance of power tipped From that point on the pressures of war favored states with the greatest public creditworthiness and the most creditworthy states were invariably those in which the people who provided the money also controlled the government Democracy had found a secret weapon and the era of the citizen creditor was born Macdonald unfolds this tale in a sweeping history that starts in biblical times passes via medieval Italy to the wars and revolutions of the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and ends with the great bond drives that financed the two world wars Where Did the Party Go? Jeff Taylor,2006 Using a twelve point model of Jeffersonian thought Taylor appraises the competing views of two Midwestern liberals William Jennings Bryan and Hubert Humphrey on economic policy foreign relations and political reform to demonstrate how the Democratic party lost its place in Middle America Provided by publisher Clio's Southern Sisters Constance B. Schulz,Elizabeth Hayes Turner,2004 It is no accident that the Southern Association for Women Historians enjoys the founding date of 1970 After extended and often bitter engagement with entrenched sexism in the decades following World War II women historians found their voices and crafted a means by which to be heard The years between 1970 and 1980 represented a decade of optimism for women who sought equality in the workplace Professional women professors of history most especially found hope in organizations such as the SAWH created to address issues of visibility legitimacy and equality in historical associations and in employment In Clio's Southern Sisters Constance B Schulz and Elizabeth Hayes Turner collect the stories of the women who helped to found and lead the organization during its first twenty years These women give evidence in strong and effective language of the experiences that shaped their entree into the profession They describe the point at which they experienced the shift in their lives and in the lives of those around them that led toward a new day for women in the history profession Book Jacket The American Economic Review ,1943 Includes annual List of doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in American universities and colleges and the Hand book of the American Economic Association The Christian Century ,1943 Christian Century of the Disciples of Christ ,1933 The Library Catalogs of the Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace, Stanford University Hoover Institution on War, Revolution, and Peace,1969 A Catalog of Books Represented by Library of Congress Printed Cards Issued to July 31, 1942 ,1942 The Catholic Periodical Index
