Persons And Powers Of Women In Diverse Cultures:

Persons and Powers of Women in Diverse Cultures Shirley Ardener, 2024-11-01 This volume presents important essays inspired by the pioneering works of three leading women anthropologists The title may therefore be read in more than one way The three biographical essays in this volume as well as the comprehensive bibliographies of these anthropologists works fully confirm the high esteem in which their remarkable personalities are held to this day and offer material about them not formerly available The book includes important discussions by distinguished social anthropologists based on rich ethnographic data of the many identities personhoods powers and other various categorizations of women each author handling her material and analyses in her own distinctive way Of particular value is Shirley Ardener's perceptive introductory essay which places the volume in the wider context of some areas of major concern to social scientists such as the construction of identities kinship theory and the production of knowledge itself as well as of the particularities of women in diverse cultures Women in South African History Nomboniso Gasa, 2007 Accompanying CD ROM contains the complete text of the printed volume Muslim Women's Choices Camillia Fawzi El-Solh, Judy Mabro, 2020-08-21 This volume counters the prevailing Western views and stereotypes of Muslim women usually projected through male interpretations by presenting a cross cultural perspective of their experiences and choices in contemporary Muslim communities The main theme running through these papers is the manner in which Muslim women consciously as well as unconsciously manipulate religious belief to negotiate their gender roles within the context of their lives Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Dr Alan Barnard, 2002-09-11 This Encyclopedia provides description and analysis of the terms concepts and issues of social and cultural anthropology International in authorship and coverage this accessible work is fully indexed and cross referenced Studies in Jaina History and Culture Peter Flügel, 2006-02-01 The last ten years have seen interest in Jainism increasing with this previously little known Indian religion assuming a significant place in religious studies Studies in Jaina History and Culture breaks new ground by investigating the doctrinal differences and debates amongst the Jains rather than presenting Jainism as a seamless whole whose doctrinal core has remained virtually unchanged throughout its long history The focus of the book is the discourse concerning orthodoxy and heresy in the Jaina tradition the question of omniscience and Jaina logic role models for women and female identity Jaina schools and sects religious property law and ethics The internal diversity of the Jaina tradition and Jain techniques of living with diversity are explored from an interdisciplinary point of view by fifteen leading scholars in Jaina studies The contributors focus on the principal social units of the tradition the schools movements sects and orders rather than Jain religious culture in abstract

Peter Fl gel provides a representative snapshot of the current state of Jaina studies that will interest students and academics involved in the study of religion or South Asian cultures The Sacred Forest Henry Kam Kah,2015 The sacred forest is a concrete place with a rich symbolic meaning For the Laimbwe ethnic group of the North West Region of Cameroon it is the centre of the social life around which the people organize their matrilineal system Henry Kam Kah describes the origin development and the changes in matriliney as a gender construction from an insider point of view Using written material and interviews with 150 persons he shows how the system overcame all the various challenges since the 18th century especially the rejection of matriliney by the colonial powers and Christian missionaries With this study Henry Kam Kah calls into question different prejudices of a Eurocentric gender research which believes in the dominance of patriarchal structures and the decline of other gender systems under the impact of global influence and pressure Henry Kam Kah is Senior Lecturer at the Department of History of the University of Buea Cameroon The Practice of Sociology Maitrayee Chaudhuri,2003 This book grew out of a need to examine the practice the teaching and research of sociology in India This need was in turn prompted by the experience of the contributors as students and teachers of the problems of understanding communicating the connections between sociology and the society in which one lives and between sociological theory and empirical studies

Culture, Creation, and Procreation Monika Böck,Aparna Rao,2001-01-01 As reproduction is seen as central to kinship and the biological link as the primary bond between parents and their offspring Western perceptions of kin relations are primarily determined by ideas about consanguinity genealogical relations and genetic connections Advocates of cultural constructivism have taken issue with a concept that puts so much stress on heredity as being severely biased by western ideas of kinship Ethnosociologists in particular developed alternative systems using indigenous categories This symbolic approach has however been rejected by some scholars as plagued by the problems of the analytical separation of ideology from practice of largely overlooking relations of domination and of ignoring the questions of shared knowledge and choice This volume offers a corrective by discussing the constitution of kinship among different communities in South Asia and addressing the relationship between ideology and practice cultural models and individual strategies Persons and Powers of Women in Diverse Cultures Shirley Ardener,1992
