Perspectives On Nuclear War And Peace Education:

Perspectives on Nuclear War and Peace Education Robert Ehrlich,1987-09-22 This work provides an organized collection of views on nuclear war education a topic of great current concern It grew out of the 1986 Conference on Nuclear War Education sponsored by George Mason University The contributors represent the full spectrum of academic disciplines from the humanities to the sciences Through this diverse collection of essays the editor has tried to elucidate the important themes which underlie this curriculum

John A Collected Essays 2 John Scales Avery,2016-02-06 This book contains a collection of essays and articles by John Scales Avery discussing the severe problems and challenges which the world faces during the 21st century Human civilization and the biosphere are threatened by catastrophic climate change Unless rapid steps are taken to replace fossil fuels by 100% renewable energy we risk passing a tipping point beyond which uncontrollable feedback loops could produce a 6th extinction event comparable to those observed in the geological record Another serious threat to human civilization and the biosphere is the danger of a catastrophic thermonuclear war Over a long period of time there is an ever increasing risk that such a war will occur by accident or miscalculation Thirdly there is threat of an extremely serious and widespread famine produced by the climate change rapidly growing populations and the end of the fossil fuel era We must urgently address all three challenges

The SAGE Encyclopedia of War: Social Science Perspectives Paul Joseph,2016-10-11 Traditional explorations of war look through the lens of history and military science focusing on big events big battles and big generals By contrast The SAGE Encyclopedia of War Social Science Perspective views war through the lens of the social sciences looking at the causes processes and effects of war and drawing from a vast group of fields such as communication and mass media economics political science and law psychology and sociology Key features include More than 650 entries organized in an A to Z format authored and signed by key academics in the field Entries conclude with cross references and further readings aiding the researcher further in their research journeys An alternative Reader s Guide table of contents groups articles by disciplinary areas and by broad themes A helpful Resource Guide directing researchers to classic books journals and electronic resources for more in depth study This important and distinctive work will be a key reference for all researchers in the fields of political science international relations and sociology

Peace Education and Religion: Perspectives, Pedagogy, Policies Marcia Hermansen,Ednan Aslan,Evrin Erşan Akkılıç,2022-10-02 Whether formally incorporated into curriculum and teacher training or informally integrated in contexts such as state or NGO initiatives dealing with resolving social ethnic and religious conflicts peace education is increasingly recognized as a critical component in addressing violence in contemporary plural societies Peace education can constructively undertake a reframing of historical narratives while inspiring practical community activities An important but insufficiently studied and theorized aspect of peace education is the role of religion The challenge to peace education in today s globalized diverse mobile and religiously pluralistic world is to be able to take both complex global and distinctive local situations into account The contributions to this integrative collection of essays provide exactly these local and global perspectives on the state of peace education and its relationship to religion across pedagogy and curriculum state policies and activism within societies on the front lines of resolving internal conflicts whether historical or recent that often reflect aspects of religious identities Space-Age Science and Stone-Age Politics John Scales Avery, 2016-02-07 Space age science and stone age politics make an extraordinarily dangerous mixture It seems probable that in the future the rapidity of scientific and technological change will produce ethical dilemmas and social tensions even more acute than those we experience today It is likely that the fate of our species and the fate of the biosphere will be made precarious by the astonishing speed of scientific and technological change unless this progress is matched by the achievement of far greater ethical and political maturity than we have yet attained Militarisation and Demilitarisation in Contemporary Japan Glenn D. Hook, 2003-12-16 The intertwined issues of Japanese identity and normality are at the centre of the tension between internal and external pressures on Japanese defence and security policies With chapters on peace thought the militarisation and demilitarisation of language as well as the hard aspects of the Japanese military build up in the 1980s and the response to the Gulf War in the 1990s this study challenges many of the preconceived notions on Japanese defence and security policies and the policy making process in Japan Exploring Betty A. Reardon's Perspective on Peace Education Dale T. Snauwaert, 2019-05-15 This book presents commentaries by a leading international group of peace education scholars and practitioners concerning Reardon's peace education theory and intellectual legacy The guiding question throughout the book is How can her foundational work be used to advance the theory and practice of peace education In an attempt to find answers the contributing authors explore three general areas of inquiry 1 Theoretical Foundations of Peace and Human Rights Education 2 Feminism and the Gender Perspective as Pathways of Transformation Toward Peace and Justice and 3 Peace Education Pedagogy and Practices A contemplative commentary by Reardon herself rounds out the coverage
