Perspectives On Evangelism

Gene Gurganus

Perspectives On Evangelism:

Biblical Perspectives on Evangelism Prof. Walter Brueggemann, 2011-07-01 In this timely and provocative work Walter Brueggemann applies his experience and skills in the area of biblical interpretation to the theme of evangelism He argues for the importance of considering afresh how the Bible itself thinks and speaks about evangelism how it enacts the dramatic claims of the good news Brueggemann here describes evangelism as a drama in three scenes concerning 1 God's victory over the forces of chaos and death 2 the announcement of that victory and 3 its appropriation by those who hear the announcement This same dramatic sequence as he shows is many time re enacted in the Bible the times and circumstances of the re enactment may differ but the essential message as well as the structure of its presentation remains the same

Perspectives on Evangelism Gene Gurganus, 2001-02-01 This book deals with the four perspectives of effective evangelism The Historical Perspective traces evangelism from the OT through the Dark Ages The Biblical Perspective proves the primacy of evangelism in light of the plight of man The Practical Perspective discusses evangelism and proposes a workable program for the local church The Prophetic Perspective gives a prognosis of evangelism in the new century

New Testament Perspectives on Evangelism Eugene S. Wehrli, United Church Board for Homeland Ministries. Division of Evangelism and Local Church Development, 1987      Making Disciples in a World Parish Paul W. Chilcote, 2011-04-01 In this collection of inspirational and challenging essays Methodists from around the globe reflect on the practice of disciple making in their own contexts From their own perspectives they address questions like What are the challenges you face What biblical images shape your missional practice What examples of Christian authenticity inspire your communities What gifts related to mission and evangelism do you offer the global community of faith Churches on every continent have their own stories of struggle and faithfulness Indeed each distinct community within any given region has a voice of its own that deserves to be heard The voices included in this volume belong to women and men alike Likewise they resound with the accents of Africa and Asia Latin and North America Europe and Oceania Each voice is distinct but all articulate a vision of faith made effective through love In a world characterized variously by poverty and violence as well as prosperity and peace the church must reclaim its central mission to make disciples of Jesus Christ In their effort to articulate a vision of mission and evangelism the contributors to this volume bear witness to the fact that we can no longer do this work in isolation from one another To be the ambassadors of the gospel we need each other and we need to pay attention to the voices that sound different from our own This volume takes a large step in that vital direction      Call the Witnesses:

Perspectives on Evangelism in the Church of the Brethren Paul M. Robinson, 1974      Witnessing Together Stephen Spencer, Muthuraj Swamy, 2019-05-14 Witnessing Together focuses on preaching the gospel in different contexts around the world highlighting practices that are transforming communities of faith      African Christian Theology, Volume 2, Number 1, March 2025 Joshua Robert Barron, 2025-10-14 African Christian Theology is the academic journal of the Association for

Christian Theological Education in Africa ACTEA The mission of ACTEA is to strengthen theological education through accreditation scholarship and support services to serve the church and transform society The journal is one way in which ACTEA engages theological educators and church leaders in addressing relevant issues facing the church and society in Africa African Christian Theology serves the whole of Africa and provides a venue for conversations between different regions of Africa as well as an organ through which African voices can address World Christianity at large Following in the footsteps of Kwame Bediako Byang Kato K Mana Lamin Sanneh Andrew F Walls and Isaac Zokou the journal promotes World Christianity perspectives through deep engagement with African contextual realities Articles are published in English French and Portuguese each article has a trilingual abstract in those languages ACTEA was founded in 1976 by the Theological and Christian Education Commission of the Association of Evangelicals in Africa AEA Under its continued sponsorship ACTEA operates with internal autonomy in the accreditation of programmes of theological education throughout Africa in order to stimulate the improvement and standardization of such programmes and in order to secure academic recognition for such programmes wherever possible especially among the constituencies of these institutions in Africa and among similar institutions and their constituencies overseas

Reformed Perspectives on Evangelism Geoff Donnan,1998-01-01
Selected articles providing a distinctly Reformed Christian perspective on evangelism Topics such as lay evangelism door to door evangelism and use of emotional pleas are brought to the light of Scripture from various authors as Robert L Dabney Herman Hoeksema and Charles Hodge to name only a few

Perspectives on the World Christian Movement Ralph D. Winter,Steven C. Hawthorne,1981-12

The Study of Evangelism Paul W. Chilcote,Lacey C. Warner,2008-02-13

Christians and communities of faith today are rediscovering evangelism as an essential aspect of the church's mission Many of the resulting books in the marketplace however have a hands on orientation often lacking serious theological engagement and reflection Bucking that how to trend The Study of Evangelism offers thirty groundbreaking essays that plumb the depths of the biblical and theological heritage of the church with reference to evangelistic practice Helpfully organized into six categories these broad diverse writings lay a solid scholarly foundation for meaningful dialogue about the church's practice of evangelism
