The Peter Pan Syndrome Gillian Lyden,2010-03-23 Thinking about the recent discoveries about genetics I wondered what it might be like if governments decided to control how long we should live The aspect I chose is about increasing our lifespan but I know there is another side to this which is rather more sinister My story is set in the future where Gene Control apparently sets the ground rules in every country and civilisation in most areas is confined to huge domes with artificial weather systems Health both physical and mental is dealt with by the Government of each civilisation if necessary by altering peoples genes Should anything go wrong with genetic interference it is not unusual for people to disappear There are rebels who hate being controlled Some have escaped to Outside where plants grow uncontrolled and which is thought to be lawless backward and uncivilised However a majority of residents love the controlled weather system which never interferes with pleasurable activities it rains only at night has a moon sun and stars which appear to revolve around the system a crop growing facility and farming including horses cows poultry orchards etc People can live as long as they like for hundreds of years if desired and children can stay as children for as long as they and their parents wish There are robots for servants there is an education system and hospitals etc etc everything you could wish for However not everyone is happy with the situation the children in particular The story is about one family in particular Katie and Ian Stone their children Michael and Sarah and their experiences in and out of Gene Control Peter Pan Syndrome Outlet,Outlet Book Company Staff,Random House Value Publishing Staff,1986-10-14 Peter pan syndrome Mayu Sakai,2016 Potential Correlations Between Peter Pan Syndrome and Addiction Raha Didevar,2011 The "Peter Pan" Syndrome Elizabeth M. Idolising Children Daniel Donahoo,2007 Obsessed with our own youth and wanting perfect genius children who live in a world of designer clothes and toys it s time for us to find new ways of parenting and a new kind of childhood With humour insight and emotion Daniel Donahoo reflects on the place of children in our society by looking at everything from fertility rates childcare the role of the media and the day to day joys and challenges of being a parent Donahoo argues that idolising is a form of worship that adversely affects our children s development in their early years and creates citizens who no longer understand their roles and responsibilities It makes parents feel unnecessarily guilty and anxious Without blame or finger pointing Idolising Children examines how we arrived here and looks at what needs to change so that communities as a whole are responsible for raising children Book jacket Resurrecting the Unicorn Bud Harris,2008-11 Many 21st century men have been raised by women without a masculine role model and what they ve learned about being a man has been defined by their mothers wives and outdated or distorted concepts from the 20th century feminist movement As is the case for both men and women without a strong masculine image our souls become fragmented and we lose our way When we are in such a state of confusion and imbalance we must begin again to search for the Holy Grail The Grail is the symbolic container of the psycho spiritual contents that can nourish balance and renew our lives In Resurrecting the Unicorn Bud Harris guides us deep into the realm of metaphors where we can examine the evolution and development of human consciousness and reclaim discarded yet much needed aspects of our humanity 20 Something Manifesto Christine Hassler, 2010-09-24
