Hong Kong Pop Culture in the 1980s Yiu-Wai Chu, 2025-10-01 This book deals with the 1980s the golden decade of Hong Kong pop culture in which a cosmopolitan lifestyle of pop and chic emerged in the city Bookended by two major historical incidents the 1980s will probably enter the annals of Hong Kong history as the decade that defined its future after reversion to Mainland China Having witnessed and experienced the rise of Hong Kong pop culture to unprecedented heights in this decade the author enhances its context through a story about his own personal belongings Examining popular genres including television film music fashion disco and city magazine this book teases out the distinctive aspects of Hong Kong pop culture that defined his Hong Kong As Hong Kong has been undergoing drastic changes in recent years it is necessary to point toward new imaginaries by re-examining its development Toward this end this book will shed light on an important research area of Hong Kong Studies as an academic discipline The Earth as Transformed by Human Action B.

L. Turner, William C. Clark, Robert W. Kates, John F. Richards, Jessica T. Mathews, William B. Meyer, 1993-01-29 The Earth as Transformed by Human Action is the culmination of a mammoth undertaking involving the examination of the toll our continual strides forward technical and social take on our world The purpose of such a study is to document the changes in the biosphere that have taken place over the last 300 years to contrast global patterns of change to those appearing on a regional level and to explain the major human forces that have driven these changes The first section deals strictly with the major human forces of the past 300 years and the second is a detailed account of the transformations of the global environment wrought by human action The final section examines a range of perspectives and theories that purport to explain human actions with regard to the biosphere Report of the Secretary's Task Force on Black & Minority Health: Crosscutting issues in minority health United States. Department of Health and Human Services. Task Force on Black and Minority Health, 1985 Abstract A US Department of Health and Human Services DHHS report examines the impact of a broad range of behavioral societal and health care issues concerning the health of US blacks and minorities on current departmental program areas Six topics were identified as priority areas cancer cardiovascular disease and stroke chemical dependency alcohol illicit drugs cigarettes diabetes homicide and accidents and infant mortality Subcommittee summary reports are intended for each of these 6 areas Data also are presented on the social characteristics of minority populations mortality and morbidity indicators health services and resources an inventory of DHHS program efforts and a survey of non federal organizations Recommendations are provided for health information and education health services health professions development cooperative efforts data development and research needs wz AP Statistics Premium Martin
