Institutions and Regional Labour Markets in Europe Lambert van der Laan, Santos M. Ruesga, 2019-05-23 First published in 1998 this volume examines the performance of labour markets against the background of different economic and institutional settings in Western and Eastern Europe The book gives a clear picture of the mosaic of impressive transformations presently taking place in Western and Eastern European labour markets and provides access to information which was previously either widely dispersed or non-existent The book gives detailed information about how countries and regions deal with transformations described The substantive country wide and regional diversity that is discussed allows the reader to understand the role of labour and institutions in the development of countries and regions The book is written by labour market and regional experts from the various countries concerned The Impacts of Automotive Plant Closure Andrew Beer, Holli Evans, 2013-09-13 Economic restructuring has been a notable feature of so called mature industrial economies such as the UK and Australia in the last two decades with deregulation privatisation technological change and globalisation combining to reshape such economies Some industries have grown while others have declined Moreover while overall employment in the UK and Australia has grown many newly created positions require skills not found in the industries shedding labour or are in casualised and low paid occupations Many lesser skilled workers leaving declining industries are therefore at risk of long term unemployment or leaving the workforce entirely Both mental and physical health can be affected after redundancy It is therefore crucial that the measures put in place in many domains of social policy such as formal health policy employment assistance community development housing assistance and so on to adequately address the difficulties confronting this group This volume takes a closer look at the impact of manufacturing notably automotive plant closures in the UK Birmingham and Australia Adelaide in recent years and policy responses to those closures It attempts to tease out differences in policy response and effectiveness and attempts to identify areas where policy could be made to work better in terms of adjusting to large scale manufacturing change and resulting job losses In so doing it begins for the first time we believe to take a comparative approach to understanding the impact of plant closures and policy responses This book was published as a special issue of Policy Studies

Spatial Dependence and Heterogeneity in Empirical Analyses of Regional Labour Market Dynamics Norbert Schanne, 2015-06-23 Warum sollen Regionen innerhalb eines Landes unabhängige Inseln sein Und warum sollen über das gesamte Land hinweg einheitlich starke ökonomische oder soziale Wirkungszusammenhänge bestehen Diese zwei Annahmen werden in der angewandten empirischen Wirtschafts und Sozialforschung üblicherweise implizit unterstellt Wie in statistischen Verfahren von dieser unrealistischen Modellstruktur unter Ausnutzung der räumlichen Strukturen in beobachteten Variablen und unterstellten Zusammenhängen abgewichen werden kann diskutiert Norbert Schanne im vorliegenden Band Möglichkeiten unser Verständnis der Konomie zu vertiefen werden ebenso verdeutlicht wie Chancen und Risiken beim Einsatz der Methoden in Studien zu verschiedenen Aspekten der Arbeitsmarktdynamik

Regional Labor Market Dynamics, Housing, and Migration Kari Hämäläinen, Petri Bockerman, 2004 This study explores the impact of plant level labor market dynamics and housing markets on gross migration flows The internal and the external reorganizations of regional labor markets are shown to be related An increase in internal turnover of jobs and workers in regional labor markets is found to increase net migration This effect arises mainly from a reduction in out migration Housing markets constitute constraints for migration In particular an increase in regional housing prices and a large share of owner occupancy housing discourages net migration to a region by reducing in migration In contrast the out migration rate remains largely unaffected by housing markets

The Economics of Affordable Housing Alexander Styhre, 2022-11-23 The economic system of competitive capitalism has proven to be both resilient and flexible over time and has contributed to the economic welfare of citizens in liberal and coordinated market economies in diverse regions and countries At the same time over the entire post World War II period there has been a notable endemic shortage of affordable housing in many advanced economies This book points at both the causes and the consequences of this circumstance and provides an integrated economic and legal view of how housing production is dependent on housing finance which in turn means that legal conditions and the sovereign state play an active role Further the book contributes to the literature from two otherwise partially separated disciplines housing and urban development studies on the one hand and the institutional centrality of the finance industry in the contemporary economic system on the other The author asserts that although somewhat assimilated due to the ambitions of policy makers to optimize social and economic welfare for their constituencies the combining of these two realms of expertise generates many favorable outcomes but also some costs derived from finance industry instabilities The book connects theoretical perspectives and provides an empirical explanation for how affordable housing is generated in an actual real world economy context The book will be relevant to the work of a number of academic disciplines including economics government studies housing policy and urban planning social geography and law and society An Introductory Guide to EC Competition Law and Practice Valentine Korah,1994
