Priest by Baptism is the author's third publication in this series of Catholic books. In Vocation Common Priest by Baptism, the author sets forth his personal experience in discerning whether Jesus Christ is calling him to share or participate in The Eternal Priesthood of Christ as a common priest by Baptism or as a ministerial priest by Holy Orders. In answering this question, the author recounts 25 years of priestly misidentifications and associations made by strangers, parishioners, family, friends, and neighbors, connecting the 50 priest comments with the spiritual gifts and call of a Catholic priest. Despite his sacerdotal gifts and interior call, he explains why he will remain a layman serving Jesus Christ and His Church as a holy, knowledgeable, and charitable common priest by Baptism. By publishing his vocation story, the author hopes to inspire other men in discernment with their own sacerdotal gifts and interior call from Christ to become ministerial priests, especially in light of the crisis of vocations in the U.S. Church. Finally, this book is part of the author's personal response to and promotion of the Church's universal call to holiness, Lumen Gentium, and the new evangelization, Novo Millennio Ineunte, in the electronically and globally connected virtual world of the Internet. All of his books are also available in the Amazon Kindle Store worldwide.

Vincent, 2018-10-01 For too long Lent has been thought of as a season of self sacrifice and discipline that sounds to many Christians like a list of spiritual chores Lenten disciplines become the spiritual equivalent of New Year s resolutions to lose weight be healthier or practice better money management These promises are easily made and often quickly broken leaving us feeling like we do not measure up to what we should be In his letter to the Philippians the apostle Paul joyfully turns to spiritual practices that draw him closer to God amid persecution and imprisonment These practices keep Paul connected to a sense of God s power and presence Joy flows from Paul and becomes a vital part of his relationship with the Philippians Because of This I Rejoice is a 6 week study of Philippians that explores what Paul teaches about joyfully practicing spiritual disciplines The intent of these disciplines is to help us focus less on ourselves and more on God This Lenten study invites us to engage in the same spiritual practices as a way to grow closer to God and allow joy to flow through our lives The Living Church ,1906 The United States Catalog ,1906
