APAIS 1991: Australian public affairs information service , Architectures of Occupation in the Australian Short Story Patrick West, 2024-05-28 Patrick West's Architectures of Occupation in the Australian Short Story cultivates the potential for literary representations of architectural space to contribute to the development of a contemporary politics of Australian post colonialism West argues that the predominance of tropes of place within cultural and critical expressions of Australian post colonialism should be re balanced through attention to spatial strategies of anti colonial power To elaborate the raw material of such strategies West develops interdisciplinary close readings of keynote stories within three female authored pan twentieth century Australian short story collections Bush Studies by Barbara Baynton 1902 Kiss on the Lips and Other Stories by Katharine Susannah Prichard 1932 and White Turtle A Collection of Short Stories by Merlinda Bobis 1999 The capacity of the short story form to prompt creative and politically germinal engagements with species of space associated with architecture and buildings is underscored Relatedly West argues that the recent resurgence of binary thought on local national and international scales occasions an approach to the short story collections shaped by binary relationships like a dichotomy of inside and outside Concluding his argument West connects the literary and architectural critiques of the story collections to the wicked problem linked to ongoing colonial violences of improving Australian Indigenous housing outcomes Innovative and interdisciplinary this book will be of interest to scholars and students of Literary Architectural and Postcolonial Studies APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service ,

South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora is Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies Poetics and Politics of Relationality in Contemporary Australian Aboriginal Fiction Dorothee Klein, 2021-10-28 This is the first sustained study of the formal particularities of works by Bruce Pascoe Kim Scott Tara June Winch and Alexis Wright Drawing on a rich theoretical framework that includes approaches to relationality by Aboriginal thinkers Edouard Glissant and Jean

Luc Nancy and recent work in New Formalism and narrative theory the book illustrates how they use a broad range of narrative techniques to mediate negotiate and temporarily create networks of relations that interlink all elements of the universe Through this focus on relationality Aboriginal writing gains both local and global significance Locally these narratives assert Indigenous sovereignty by staging an unbroken interrelatedness of people and their land Globally they intervene into current discourses about humanity's relationship with the natural environment urging readers to acknowledge our interrelatedness with and dependence on the land that sustains us

Family Skeleton Carmel Bird, 2016 From inside her Toorak mansion Margaret matriarch widow of Edmund Rice O Day of O Day Funerals secretly surveys her family in the garden Everyone including Margaret herself is oblivious to the secrets that threaten to be uncovered by a visiting American relative who is determined to excavate the O Day's family history How far will Margaret go in order to bury the truth Family Skeleton examines the dark heart of a family that has for generations been engaged in dark business You can't dig a grave without disturbing the smooth surface of the ground Deftly woven with elegant wit and with compassion this dark comedy is about what you might unearth if you dig deep enough Carmel Bird is a literary artist to her fingertips She writes prose that has the precision of poetry and that uncanny quality poetry has of making the inner life speak Peter Craven Carmel Bird is an established Australian author of over 20 books She has been three times shortlisted for the Miles Franklin Award Subject Fiction
