Religion And Politics Islam And Muslim Civilisation:

Religion and Politics Jan-Erik Lane, Hamadi Redissi, Riyāḍ Ṣaydāwī, 2009 Offering a timely new appraisal of the political and social impact of Islam this expanded second edition of Religion and Politics has been fully updated in line with new events Jan Erik Lane and Hamadi Redissi look at the underlying social consequences of religious beliefs to account for the political differences between major civilizations of the world against a background of the rise of modern capitalism

Religion and Politics Jan-Erik Lane, Hamadi Redissi, 2020-07-24 Offering a timely new appraisal of the political and social impact of Islam Religion and Politics will be welcomed by political scientists and historians alike In this work Jan Erik Lane and Hamadi Redissi employ a Weberian approach underlining the social consequences of religious beliefs to account for the political differences between the major civilizations of the world against the background of the rise of modern capitalism in the Occidental sphere Compared with Weber and his emphasis upon economic modernization the perspective on religion is broadened to encompass post modernity particular attention is paid to human rights and the rule of law This thought provoking work raises the question of whether the tenets of Islam might be reconciled with the requirements of post modernity

Religion and Politics Professor Hamadi Redissi, Professor Jan-Erik Lane, 2013-03-28 Muslim societies are struggling under the need for modernization and the drift towards Islamic fundamentalism The balance between these two forces is struck differently in the various Muslim societies depending upon the constellation of groups as historical legacies However the tension is real In this work Jan Erik Lane and Hamadi Redissi look at the underlying social consequences of religious beliefs to account for the political differences between major civilizations of the world against a background of the rise of modern capitalism Offering a timely new appraisal of the political and social impact of Islam this expanded second edition of Religion and Politics has been fully updated in line with new events and will be welcomed by political scientists and historians alike In a readable and accessible style this thought provoking work raises the question of whether the tenets of Islam might be reconciled with the requirements of post modernity

War and Law in the Islamic World Matthias Vanhullebusch, 2015-06-05 A three part investigation on the origins and evolving roles that Islamic law and international humanitarian law have played in regulating conflict and violence War and Law in the Islamic World brings to light legal and policy complexities that plague modern day armed conflict in the region

The Routledge Handbook to Religion and Political Parties Jeffrey Haynes, 2019-11-28 As religion and politics become ever more intertwined relationships between religion and political parties are of increasing global political significance This handbook responds to that development providing important results of current research involving religion and politics focusing on democratisation democracy party platform formation party moderation and secularisation social constituency representation and interest articulation Covering core issues new debates and country case studies the handbook provides a comprehensive overview of fundamentals and new directions in the subject Adopting a comparative approach it examines the relationships between religion and political parties in a variety of contexts regions and countries with a focus on Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism and Hinduism Contributions cover such topics as religion secularisation and modernisation religious fundamentalism and terrorism the role of religion in conflict resolution and peacebuilding religion and its connection to state democratisation and democracy and regional case studies covering Asia the Americas Europe Sub Saharan Africa the Middle East and North Africa This comprehensive handbook provides crucial information for students researchers and professionals researching the topics of politics religion comparative politics secularism religious movements political parties and interest groups and religion and sociology

Islam Between Culture and Politics Bassam Tibi,2005-08-31 Bassam Tibi offers a radical solution to the problems faced by Islam in a rapidly changing and globalizing world He proposes a depoliticization of the faith and the introduction of reforms to embrace secular democracy pluralism civil society and individual human rights The alternative to this is the impasse of fundamentalism The pivotal argument is that Islam is being torn between the pressure for cultural innovation and a defensive move towards the politicization of its symbols for non religious ends

Saudi Clerics and Shi'a Islam Raihan Ismail,2016-03-07 The Saudi ulama are known for their strong opposition to Shi'a theology Shi'a communities in Saudi Arabia and external Shi'a influences such as Iran and Hezbollah Their potent hostility combined with the influence of the ulama within the Saudi state and the Muslim world has led some commentators to blame the Saudi ulama for what they see as growing sectarian conflict in the Middle East However there is very little understanding of what reasoning lies behind the positions of the ulama and there is a significant gap in the literature dealing with the polemics directed at the Shi'a by the Saudi religious establishment In Saudi Clerics and Shi'a Islam Raihan Ismail looks at the discourse of the Saudi ulama regarding Shiism and Shi'a communities analysing their sermons lectures publications and religious rulings The book finds that the attitudes of the ulama are not only governed by their theological convictions regarding Shiism but are motivated by political events involving the Shi'a within the Saudi state and abroad It also discovers that political events affect the intensity and frequency of the rhetoric of the ulama at any given time

Religious Liberty in Western and Islamic Law Kristine Kalanges,2012-04-04 In Religious Liberty in Western and Islamic Law Toward a World Legal Tradition Kristine Kalanges argues that differences between Western and Islamic legal formulations of religious freedom are attributable in substantial part to variations in their respective religious and intellectual histories Kalanges suggests that while divergence between the two bodies of law challenges the characterization of religious liberty as a universal human right the dilemma of religious freedom the difficult choice between the universality of religious liberty rights and peaceful co existence of diverse legal cultures may yet be transformed through the cultivation of a world legal tradition This argument is advanced through comparative analysis of human rights instruments from the Western and Muslim worlds with attention to the legal political processes by which religious and philosophical ideas have been institutionalized

The Routledge Handbook of Terrorism Research Alex Schmid,2011-02-25 This major new Handbook synthesises more than two decades of scholarly research and

History of Islamic Political Thought Antony Black, 2011-07-31 A complete history of Islamic political thought from early Islam c 622 661 to the present Now in its 2nd edition this textbook describes and interprets all schools of Islamic political thought their origins inter connections and meaning It examines the Qur an the early Caliphate classical Islamic philosophy and the political culture of the Ottoman and other empires It covers major thinkers such as Averroes Ibn Rushd and Ibn Taymiyya as well as a number of lesser authors and Ibn Khaldun is presented as one of the most original political theorists ever It draws on a wide range of sources including writings on religion law philosophy and statecraft expressed in treatises handbooks and political rhetoric The new edition analyses the connections between religion and politics covering the most recent developments in Islamic political thought and the most recent historical scholarship It ends with a critical survey of reformism or modernism and Islamism or fundamentalism from the late 19th century up to the present day

Politics of the Islamic Tradition Mohammed Moussa, 2015-10-05 Over the last two centuries the Muslim world has undergone dramatic transformations impacting the Islamic tradition and throwing into question our understanding of tradition The notion of tradition as an unmoving edifice is contradicted by the very process of its transmission and the complex role human beings play in creating and sustaining traditions is evident in the indigenous mechanisms of change within the Islamic tradition Politics of the Islamic Tradition locates the work of Egyptian cleric Muhammad al Ghazali within the context of this dynamic Islamic tradition with special focus on his political thought Al Ghazali inherited a vast and diverse heritage which he managed to reinterpret in a changing world An innovative exploration of the change and continuity present within Muslim discourses this book brings together disparate threads of the Islamic tradition religious exegesis the contemporary Arab

Middle East the Islamic state and idea of renewal in al Ghazali's thought As well as being one of the first complete treatments of al Ghazali's works this book provides an original critical approach to tradition and its capability for innovation and change countering the dichotomy between tradition and modernity that typically informs most scholarly studies on contemporary Islam Offering highly original insights into Islamic thought and engaging with critical notions of tradition this book is essential reading for students and scholars of Islamic Politics and History Inside Jihadism Farhad

Khosrokhavar, 2015-12-03 Jihad is the most organized force against Western capitalism since the Soviet era Yet jihadism is multifaceted and complex much broader than Al Qaeda alone In the first wide ranging introduction to today's rapidly growing jihadism Khosrokhavar explains how two key movements variously influence jihadi activists One based in the Middle East is more heavily influenced by Islamic religion and political thought The other composed of individuals growing up or living mostly in Europe and Western democracies including the United States is motivated by secular as well as religious influences Khosrokhavar interprets religious and lesser known Arabic texts and the real world economic and political dynamics that make jihadism a growing threat to Western democracies Interviews with imprisoned jihadists on what motivated their plots and actions help the readers understand reality as seen by jihadists The author concludes with recommendations to safeguard democracies from future jihadism Encyclopedias about Muslim Civilisations Aptin Khanbaghi, 2019-07-31

Encyclopedias about Muslim Civilisations Edited by Aptin Khanbaghi Religion and World Civilizations Andrew Holt, 2023-06-30 An indispensable resource for readers investigating how religion has influenced societies and cultures this three volume encyclopedia assesses and synthesizes the many ways in which religious faith has shaped societies from the ancient world to today Each volume of the set focuses on a different era of world history ranging through the ancient medieval and modern worlds Every volume is filled with essays that focus on religious themes from different geographical regions For example volume one includes essays considering religion in ancient Rome while volume three features essays focused on religion in modern Africa This accessible layout makes it easy for readers to learn more about the ways that religion and society have intersected over the centuries as well as specific religious trends events and milestones in a particular era and place in world history Taken as a whole this ambitious and wide ranging work gathers more than 500 essays from more than 150 scholars who share their expertise and knowledge about religious faiths tenets people places and events that have influenced the development of civilization over the course of recorded human history Political Islam,

World Politics and Europe Bassam Tibi, 2014-07-11 The new and updated edition of Political Islam World Politics and Europe focusses on the shift within political Islam in light of 9 11 and the events of the Arab Spring from a jihadist struggle to institutional Islamism Refuting what has often been referred to by commentators as the moderation of Islamism the second edition of this book introduces the concept of institutional Islamism a process which Tibi argues was accelerated in the aftermath of the Arab Spring Both jihadist and institutional Islamism pursue the same goal of an Islamist state but disagree fundamentally on the strategy for achieving it Whilst jihadism is committed to the idea of a violent Islamic world revolution institutional Islamism embraces political institutions as a means to an end Turning to the events of the Arab Spring in Tunisia Libya and Egypt this book attempts to determine whether an abandonment of violence is enough to underpin a shift to genuine democracy Analysing the fall of Morsi in particular Tibi questions what lessons can be learnt from his presidency and argues that this event will not change the overall trend of development from jihadism to institutional Islamism A timely addition to existing literature this book will be of interest to students and scholars studying Middle Eastern and European Politics Political Islam and International Relations

Sufi Political Thought Milad Milani, 2017-11-06 Sufism is generally perceived as being spiritually focused and about the development of the self However Sufi orders have been involved historically as important civic and political actors in the Muslim world having participated extensively in inter faith dialogue and political challenges to religious orthodoxy This book presents a comprehensive overview of the Sufi political tradition both historically and in its present form It outlines how Sufi thought has developed examines how Sufism has been presented both by scholars and by Sufis themselves and considers Sufis active political roles It argues that Sufis frequently well educated well travelled and imaginative have been well placed to engage with other faiths and absorb their ideas into Islam but that they have also been because they understand other faiths well placed to understand the distinctiveness of Islam and thereby act as the guardians of Islam s core ideas and values

The Islamic Enlightenment: The Struggle Between Faith and Reason, 1798 to Modern Times Christopher de Bellaigue, 2017-04-04 The finest Orientalist of his generation Wall Street Journal rewrites everything we thought we knew about the modern history of the Islamic world In this stylishly written surprisingly moving chronicle Harper s Christopher de Bellaigue presents an absorbing account of the political and social reformations that transformed the lands of Islam in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The best sort of book for our disordered days Pankaj Mishra The Islamic Enlightenment is at once new fascinating and extraordinarily important Wall Street Journal as it challenges ossified perceptions in Western culture that self righteously condemn the Muslim world as hopelessly benighted This false perception belies the fact that Islamic civilization has long been undergoing its own anguished transformation and that the violence of an infinitesimally small minority is the blowback from this process In reclaiming the stories of the fascinating individuals who would grapple with reform and modernization New York Times Book Review de Bellaigue s eye opening well written and very timely Yuval Harrari history shows the folly of Westerners demanding modernity from people whose lives are already drenched in it
