Religion Across Borders Transnational Immigrant Networks:

Religion Across Borders Helen Rose Fuchs Ebaugh, Janet Saltzman Chafetz, 2002 Religion Across Borders examines both personal and organizational networks that exist between members in U S immigrant religious communities and individuals and religious institutions left behind Building upon Religion and the New Immigrants 2000 their previous study of im Religion Across Borders Helen Rose Ebaugh, Janet Saltzman Chafetz, 2002-10-16 The new immigrants coming to the United States and establishing ethnic congregations do not abandon religious ties in their home countries Rather as they communicate with family and friends left behind in their homelands they influence religious structures and practices there Religion Across Borders examines both personal and organizational networks that exist between members in U S immigrant religious communities and individuals and religious institutions left behind Building upon Religion and the New Immigrants 2000 _their previous study of immigrant religious communities in Houston_ sociologists Ebaugh and Chafetz ask how religious remittances flow between home and host communities how these interchanges affect religious practices in both settings and how influences change over time as new immigrants become settled The study s unique comparative perspective looks at differing faith groups Catholic Protestant Buddhist from Argentina Mexico Guatamala Vietnam and China Data on ways in which historic geographic economic and religious factors influence transnational religious ties makes necessary reading for students of immigration religion and anyone interested in the increasingly global aspects of American religion

Intersections of Religion and Migration Jennifer B. Saunders, Elena Fiddian-Qasmiyeh, Susanna Snyder, 2016-09-28 This innovative volume introduces readers to a variety of disciplinary and methodological approaches used to examine the intersections of religion and migration A range of leading figures in this field consider the roles of religion throughout various types of migration including forced voluntary and economic They discuss examples of migrations at all levels from local to global and critically examine case studies from various regional contexts across the globe The book grapples with the linkages and feedback between religion and migration exploring immigrant congregations activism among and between religious groups and innovations in religious thought in light of migration experiences among other themes The contributors demonstrate that religion is an important factor in migration studies and that attention to the intersection between religion and migration augments and enriches our understandings of religion Ultimately this volume provides a crucial survey of a burgeoning cross disciplinary interreligious and global area of study Home Across Borders Jagath Bandara Pathirage, 2024-10-08 This book studies how transnational migrants create a sense of home in their host countries It draws on case studies of Sri Lankan migrants living in Australia to argue that home is an existential experience rather than a fixed entity The author looks at how the sense of home arises as a fresh category which is critical in defining one s existentiality in the host society Going beyond the conventional methodological approach of an ethnographer objectivizing other s sense of home into fixed categories the book attempts to foreground the immigrant s articulation of home which evolves parallel to their being It reveals how three important aspects of our lives time space and memory intersect with the trajectories of migration The author also delves into the ways in which migrants engage in building a home as a way of creating materiality in their dwelling practice Unique and compelling the book will be highly useful in studies of diaspora globalisation and transnational migration It will be of interest to students researchers and scholars of anthropology migration and transnational studies as well as sociology and other related disciplines Global Religious Movements Across Borders Stephen M. Cherry, Helen Rose Ebaugh, 2016-04-22 From global missionizing among proselytic faiths to mass migration through religious diasporas religion has traveled from one side of the world and back again It continues to play a prominent role in shaping world politics and has been a vital force in the continued emergence spread and creation of a transnational civil society Exploring how religious roots are shaping organizations that seek to aid people across political and geographic boundaries service movements this book focuses on how religious movements establish structures to assist people with basic human needs such as food clothing shelter education and health Examining a multitude of faith traditions with origins in different parts of the world seven contributing chapters with an introduction and conclusions by the senior author offer a unique discussion of the intersections between religious transnationalism and social movements Network Governance of Global Religions Michel S. Laguerre, 2012-03-28 This study seeks to explain three models of network governance embedded in digital practices that the mainstream monotheistic religions Judaism Catholic Christianity and Islam have used to lead and manage the worldwide distribution of their local nodes exploring the connection between network governance and its digital embeddedness and showing how the latter enhances the performance of the former Asian Migrants and Religious Experience Bernardo Brown, Brenda Yeoh, 2025-10-01 Typically scholars approach migrants religions as a safeguard of cultural identity something that connects migrants to their communities of origin This ethnographic anthology challenges that position by reframing the religious experiences of migrants as a transformative force capable of refashioning narratives of displacement into journeys of spiritual awakening and missionary calling These essays explore migrants motivations in support of an argument that to travel inspires a search for new meaning in religion Religion in Times of Crisis , 2014-07-03 Religion is alive and well all over the world especially in times of personal political and social crisis Even in Europe long regarded the most secular continent religion has taken centre stage in how people respond to the crises associated with modernity or how they interact with the nation state In this book scholars working in and on Europe offer fresh perspectives on how religion provides answers to existential crisis how crisis increases the salience of religious identities and cultural polarization and how religion is contributing to changes in the modern world in Europe and beyond Cases from Poland to Pakistan and from Ireland to Zimbabwe among others demonstrate the complexity and ambivalence of religion s role in the contemporary world Contributors are Mariecke van den Berg David J Bos Marco Derks Marco Derks R Ruard Ganzevoort Milo Jovanovi Vladimir Kmec Marta Ko odziejska Anne Marie Korte Anne Sophie Lamine Christophe

Religion, Migration and Business María Villares-Varela, Olivia Sheringham, 2020-10-07 This book critically interrogates the role of religious faith in the experiences and practices of migrant entrepreneurs against the backdrop of neoliberal Britain Focussing on Pentecostalism a popular Christian denomination amongst migrant groups in the UK the authors draw on primary qualitative data to examine the ways in which Pentecostal beliefs and values influence the aspirations and practices of migrant entrepreneurs The book also explores the role of Pentecostal churches in supporting entrepreneurial activities among migrant communities arguing that these institutions simultaneously comply and contest the formation of neoliberal subjectivities providing cultural legitimacy to the entrepreneurial subject whilst also contesting the community erosion of neoliberalism particularly in an austerity context and fostering a strong sense of belonging among congregants The book offers an interdisciplinary perspective spanning sociology geography and entrepreneurship studies to explain how values and faith networks shape everyday life work and entrepreneurial practices

Religion and Social Justice For Immigrants Pierrette Hondagneu-Sotelo, 2006-10-18 Religion has jumped into the sphere of global and domestic politics in ways that few would have imagined a century ago Some expected that religion would die as modernity flourished Instead it now stares at us almost daily from the front pages of newspapers and television broadcasts Although it is usually stories about the Christian Right or conservative Islam that grab headlines there are many religious activists of other political persuasions that are working quietly for social justice This book examines how religious immigrants and religious activists are working for equitable treatment for immigrants in the United States The essays in this book analyze the different ways in which organized religion provides immigrants with an arena for mobilization civic participation and solidarity Contributors explore topics including how non Western religious groups such as the Vietnamese Caodai are striving for community recognition and addressing problems such as racism economic issues and the politics of diaspora how interfaith groups organize religious people into immigrant civil rights activists at the U S Mexican border and how Catholic groups advocate governmental legislation and policies on behalf of refugees

The Diaspora of Brazilian Religions, 2013-03-27 The Diaspora of Brazilian Religions explores the global spread of religions originating in Brazil a country that has emerged as a major pole of religious innovation and production Through ethnographically rich case studies throughout the world ranging from the Americas Canada the U S Peru and Argentina and Europe the U K Portugal and the Netherlands to Asia Japan and Oceania Australia the book examines the conditions actors and media that have made possible the worldwide construction circulation and consumption of Brazilian religious identities practices and lifestyles including those connected with indigenized forms of Pentecostalism and Catholicism African based religions such as Candomblé and Umbanda as well as diverse expressions of New Age Spiritism and Ayahuasca centered neo shamanism like Vale do Amanhecer and Santo Daime Contributors include Ushi Arakaki Dario Paulo Barrera Rivera Brenda Carranza Anthony D Andrea Sara Delamont Alejandro Frigerio Alberto Groisman Annick Hernandez Clara Mafra Cecilia Mariz Deirdre Meintel Carmen Rial Cristina Rocha Camila Sampaio Clara Saraiva Olivia Sheringham Neil Stephens Jos Claudio Souza Alves Claudia Swatowski and Manuel A V squez

Religion on the Edge Courtney Bender, 2013 The thirteen essays in this volume offer a challenge to conventional scholarly approaches to the sociology of religion They urge readers to look beyond congregational settings beyond the United States and to religions other than Christianity and encourage critical engagement with religion's complex social consequences By expanding conceptual categories the essays reveal how aspects of the religious have always been part of allegedly non religious spaces and show how by attending to these intellectual blindspots we can understand aspects of identity modernity and institutional life that have long been obscured Religion on the Edge addresses a number of critical questions What is revealed about the self pluralism or modernity when we look outside the U S or outside Christian settings What do we learn about how and where the religious is actually at work and what its role is when we unpack the assumptions about it embedded in the categories we use Religion on the Edge offers groundbreaking new methodologies and models bringing to light conceptual lacunae re centering what is unsettled by their use and inviting a significant reordering of long accepted political and economic hierarchies The book shows how social scientists across the disciplines can engage with the sociology of religion By challenging many of its long standing empirical and analytic tendencies the contributors to this volume show how their work informs and is informed by debates in other fields and the analytical purchase gained by bringing these many conversations together Religion on the Edge will be a crucial resource for any scholar seeking to understand our post modern post secular world

Christianity and Migration Peter C. Phan, Oxford Editor, 2005-10-07 This book essays a not the Christian theology of migration The phenomenon of human migration that is the movement of people to and settlement temporary or permanent in a new area or country its causes and reasons and its historical anthropological social political legal and cultural dimensions have been widely studied and reasonably well understood and the next chapter will discuss them in detail By contrast theology as an academic discipline seems least capable of illuminating this human phenomenon It appears to most people outside the church and its educational institutions to be at best an esoteric subject and at worst a convoluted and useless mumbo jumbo especially when liberally sprinkled with Greek and Latin phrases Why not leave the study of migration to scholars in history sociology anthropology economics politics and law who albeit no less infected with highfalutin language than theologians do at least try to offer practical policies and effective strategies either for or against immigration Provided by publisher Sociology of Religion William A.

Mirola, Michael O. Emerson, Susanne C Monahan, 2015-09-16 A reader that seeks to explore the relationship between the structure and culture of religion and various elements of social life in the U S Sociology of Religion A Reader 2e is ideal as either a standalone reader or supplement to the text written by the same author team Why Religion Matters Based on both classic and contemporary research in the sociology of religion this reader highlights a variety of research methods and theoretical approaches It explores the ways in which religious values beliefs and practices shape the world outside of church synagogue or mosque walls while simultaneously being shaped by the non religious forces operating in that world Links to the Diasporic Homeland Russell King, Anastasia Christou, Peggy Levitt, 2015-10-14 This book examines return mobilities to and from ancestral homelands of the second generation and beyond It presents cutting edge empirical research framed within the mobilities transnational and return migration diaspora paradigms on a trans local and global scale The book is unique in presenting not only a variety of return movements including short term visits and longer term return migrations but also circulatory movements within transnational social fields while engaging with notions of home belonging identity and generation The individual contributions range widely over different ethnic national regional and global settings including Europe North America the Caribbean the Gulf and Africa The result is a remapping of the conceptualisation of diaspora and of the role of successive generations in the diasporic experience as well as a nuancing of the concepts of return migration and transnationalism by their extension to the second and subsequent generations of immigrants This book was originally published as a special issue of Mobilities Religion and the Global City David Garbin, Anna Strhan, 2017-06-29 This is the first book to explore how religious movements and actors shape and are shaped by aspects of global city dynamics

Theoretically grounded and empirically informed Religion and the Global City advances discussions in the field of urban religion and establishes future research directions David Garbin and Anna Strhan bring together a wealth of ethnographically rich and vivid case studies in a diversity of urban settings in both Global North and Global South contexts These case studies are drawn from both classical global cities such as London and Paris and also from large cosmopolitan metropolises such as Bangalore Rio de Janeiro Lagos Singapore and Hong Kong which all constitute in their own terms powerful sites within the informational cultural and moral networked economies of contemporary globalization The chapters explore some of the most pressing issues of our times globalization and the role of global neo liberal regimes urban change and in particular the dramatic urbanization of Global South countries and religious politics and religious revivalism associated for instance with transnational Islam or global Pentecostal Charismatic Christianity
