Simply Cinema Perry F. Mills, 1989 The Classic Novel Erica Sheen, Robert Giddings, 2024-07-30 This book critically examines the long established tradition of adapting classic novels to film or TV screen An emerging area of interest the relationship between film and literature and the way cinema and television have translated classic novels into moving pictures from the 30s to the 90s A wide ranging but focused collection that is bang up to date and free of media jargon that looks at both the film and the book Includes discussion of The English Patient Pride and Prejudice and Middlemarch Pickwick Papers Dracula Dickens Conrad Hardy and Waugh Cinema and Ireland Kevin Rockett, Luke Gibbons, John Hill, 2014-01-21 This was the first comprehensive study of film production in Ireland from the silent period to the present day and of representations of Ireland and Irishness in native British and American films It remains an authority on the topic The book focuses on Irish history and politics to examine the context and significance of such films as Irish Destiny The Quiet Man Ryan's Daughter Man of Aran Cal The Courier and The Dead Romanian New Wave Cinema Doru Pop, 2014-03-08 Modern Romanian filmmaking has received wide international recognition From 2001 to 2011 promising young filmmakers have been embraced as important members of European cinema The country developed a new fervor for filmmaking and a dozen new movies have received international awards and recognition from some of the most important critics worldwide This development sometimes called New Wave cinema is fully explored in this book By using a comparative approach and searching for similarities among cinematic styles and trends the study reveals that the young Romanian directors are part of a larger European way of filmmaking The discussion moves from specific themes motifs and narratives to the philosophy of a whole generation such as Cristi Puiu Cristian Mungiu Radu Muntean Corneliu Porumboiu Tudor Giurgiu and others She Animates Lora Mjolsness, Michele Leigh, 2021-02-02 She Animates examines the work of twelve female animation directors in the Soviet Union and Russia who have long been overlooked by film scholars and historians Our approach examines these directors within history culture and industrial practice in animation In addition to making a case for including these women and their work in the annals of film and animation history this volume also makes an argument for why their work should be considered part of the tradition of women's cinema We offer textual analysis that focuses on the changing attitudes towards both the woman question and feminism by examining the films in light of the emergence and evolution of a Soviet female subjectivity that still informs women's cinema in Russia today Spanish National Cinema Nuria Triana-Toribio, 2012-11-12 This study examines the discourses of nationalism as they intersected or clashed with Spanish film production from its inception to the present While the book addresses the discourses around filmmakers such as Almodóvar and Medem whose work has achieved international recognition Spanish National Cinema is particularly novel in its treatment of a whole range of popular cinema rarely touched on in studies of Spanish cinema Using accounts of films popular film magazines and documents not readily available to an English speaking audience as well as case studies focusing on the key issues of each epoch this volume illuminates the complex and changing relationship between cinema and Spanish national identity

Badiou and Cinema Alex Ling, 2010-11-26 Applies Badiou's philosophy to well known films such as Hiroshima Mon Amour Vertigo and The Matrix Alex Ling employs the philosophy of Alain Badiou to answer the question central to all serious film scholarship can cinema be thought Treating this question on three levels the author first asks if we can really think what cinema is at an ontological level Secondly he investigates whether cinema can actually think for itself that is whether or not it is truly artistic Finally he explores in what ways we can rethink the consequences of the fact that cinema thinks In answering these questions the author uses well known films ranging to illustrate Badiou's philosophy and to consider the ways in which his work can be extended critiqued and reframed with respect to the medium of cinema

After Uniqueness Erika Balsom, 2017-03-21 Images have never been as freely circulated as they are today They have also never been so tightly controlled As with the birth of photography digital reproduction has created new possibilities for the duplication and consumption of images offering greater dissemination and access But digital reproduction has also stoked new anxieties concerning authenticity and ownership From this contemporary vantage point After Uniqueness traces the ambivalence of reproducibility through the intersecting histories of experimental cinema and the moving image in art examining how artists filmmakers and theorists have found in the copy a utopian promise or a dangerous inauthenticity or both at once From the sale of film in limited editions on the art market to the downloading of bootlegs from the singularity of live cinema to video art broadcast on television Erika Balsom investigates how the reproducibility of the moving image has been embraced rejected and negotiated by major figures including Stan Brakhage Leo Castelli and Gregory Markopoulos Through a comparative analysis of selected distribution models and key case studies she demonstrates how the question of image circulation is central to the history of film and video art After Uniqueness shows that distribution channels are more than neutral pathways they determine how we encounter interpret and write the history of the moving image as an art form

The Beautiful Skin Vlad Dima, 2020-09-01 In this original and provocative study of contemporary African film and literature Vlad Dima investigates the way that football and cinema express individual and collective fantasies and highlights where football and cinema converge and diverge with regard to neocolonial fantasies Shedding new light on both well known and less familiar films by Mahamat Saleh Haroun Abderrahmane Sissako Jean Pierre Bekolo Moussa Tour Safi Faye Cheick Doukour and Joseph Ga Ramaka among others the study asks just whose fantasy is articulated in football and African cinema Answering this question requires the exploration of body and identity issues here through the metaphor of skin fantasy as a skin the football jersey as a skin and ultimately film itself as a skin that has visual aural and haptic qualities The neocolonial body is often depicted as suffering and in the process of being flattened or emptied So frequently do African cinema and literature replicate this hollowed body all skin as it were that it becomes the very type of body that defines neocolonialism Could the body of film the depth of both characters and story within the cinematic skin hold the key to moving into a post
