Portrait of a Moral Agent Teacher Gillian R. Rosenberg, 2015-06-05 Teaching morally and teaching morality are understood as mutually dependent processes necessary for providing moral education or the communication of messages and lessons on what is right good and virtuous in a student s character This comprehensive and contextualized volume offers anecdotes and experiences on how an elementary schoolteacher envisions enacts and reflects on the ethical teaching and learning of her students By employing a personally developed form of moral education that is not defined by any particular philosophical or theoretical orientation this volume relates that classroom based moral education can therefore be conceived of and promoted as moral agency Accentuated by the teacher s voice to offer the experience of being in the classroom this volume enables others to transfer relevant practices to their own teaching contexts

Resources in Education , 1999-10

The Leader in Me Stephen R. Covey, 2008-11-18 The world has entered an era of the most profound and challenging change in human history Most of our children are not prepared and we know it Parents around the world see the change and know that the traditional three R s reading writing and arithmetic are necessary but not enough Their children need to become far more responsible creative and tolerant of differences They need to increase their ability to think for themselves take initiative get along with others and solve problems Business leaders are not finding people whose skills and character match the demands of today's global economy including strong communication teamwork analytical technology and organizational skills They need young people who are self motivated creative and have a strong work ethic How will we bridge this ever widening gap The Leader in Me is the story of the extraordinary schools parents and business leaders around the world who are preparing the next generation to meet the great challenges and opportunities of the twenty first century In 1999 the A B Combs Elementary School in North Carolina was on the verge of being cut as a magnet school and needed to find new ways to educate its students Teachers and administrators began teaching practical principle based leadership skills with remarkable results In a short time the number of students passing end of grade tests vaulted from 84 to 97 percent Simultaneously the school began reporting significant increases in students self confidence dramatic drops in discipline problems and striking increases in teacher and administrator job satisfaction Parents meanwhile reported equivalent improvements in their children's attitudes and behavior at home As news of the school's success spread schools around the world began adopting the mantra to develop leaders one child at a time Business and civic leaders started partnering with schools in their communities to sponsor teacher training and student resources Each school and family approached the principles differently but the results were the same attentive energized young people engaging in the world around them The best way to prepare the next generation for the future is to emphasize the value of communication cooperation initiative and unique individual talent for nothing undermines confidence more than comparison Whether in the classroom or at home it is never too early to start applying leadership skills to everyday life Drawing on the many techniques and examples that have already seen incredible success around the world The Leader in Me shows how easy it is to incorporate these skills into daily life It is a timely answer to many of the challenges facing today's young people businesses parents and educators one that is perfectly matched to the global demands of the twenty first century
