Patterson,2022 From the turn of the century to the 1960s the songwriters of Tin Pan Alley were synonymous with American popular music Irving Berlin Cole Porter George and Ira Gershwin Rodgers and Hart even today these giants remain household names their musicals regularly revived their methods and styles analyzed and imitated and their songs the bedrock of jazz and cabaret In this new edition of The Poets of Tin Pan Alley authors Philip Furia and Laurie Patterson offer a unique perspective on these great songwriters showing how their poetic lyrics were as important as their brilliant music in shaping a golden age of American popular song Furia and Patterson continue the tradition of great perception and understanding established in the first edition as they explore the deft rhymes inventive imagery and witty solutions these songwriters used to breathe new life into rigidly established genres They devote full chapters to such greats as Irving Berlin Lorenz Hart Ira Gershwin Cole Porter Oscar Hammerstein II Howard Dietz E Y Harburg Dorothy Fields Leo Robin and Johnny Mercer They also offer a comprehensive survey of other lyricists who wrote for the sheet music industry Broadway Hollywood and Harlem nightclub revues This was the era that produced The New Yorker Don Marquis Dorothy Parker and E B White and the book places Tin Pan Alley lyrics firmly in this fascinating historical context In these pages the lyrics emerge as an important element of American modernism as the lyricists like the great modernist poets took the American vernacular and made it sing Primary Plans ,1908 The Supervisors Service Bulletin ,1929 Birds of the wave and woodland (Illustrations) Philip Stewart Robinson,2014-11-03 Example in this ebook CHAPTER I And now the goddess bids the birds appear Raise all their music and salute the year Wyatt The birds sing many a lovely lay Of God s high praise and of their sweet love tune Spenser IF we had to distribute the Seasons among the birds that are called British selecting a notable fowl to represent each we could hardly overlook the claims of the cuckoo the nightingale and the swallow to distinction But after all these are not thorough Britons They only come to us for our summer and when that goes they follow it Though great numbers of them are British born they are at best only Anglo Continental Anglo Asiatic Anglo African and Inter Oceanic But our resourceful little islands give us native birds all our own that amply serve the Seasons and represent with sufficing charm the changing Four We have the thrush the blackbird the skylark and the robin four of the sweetest birds that the round world can show The Throstle with his note so true Shakespeare The Mavis mild and mellow Burns A few stars Were ling ring in the heavens while the Thrush Began calm throated Keats The thrush is pre eminently our bird of spring While the snow drops the Fair Maids of February are still in early bloom and before the crocus has lit its points of flame or the primrose its pale fires and while the daffodils that come before the swallow dares are scarcely in their bud the thrush has burst forth in full song its burden the news of buds and blossoming There is little that is green yet in copse and hedge few flowers worth a child s picking are to be seen But he is too full of his glad evangel to be able to keep from singing and from the tufted larch Rarely pipes the mounted thrush Some naturalists want us to call it a migrant and in proof of their argument tell us of the multitudes that pass over Heligoland at a certain time of the year But against this let every one who has a garden where thrushes build bear witness how in the hardest winters the dead birds are picked up among the laurels starved or frozen to death This alone demolishes the migrant theory That numbers do leave England in winter may be true enough it is the overflow of population Indeed if the superfluous songsters did not go away and the Wild Birds Protection Act remained in force we should be smothered with thrushes I know for instance of a little place in the country some thirty acres all told garden shrubberies orchards spinneys and meadow where birds are tempted to come by the planting of fruit bushes and strawberry beds in all directions by the numbers of elder trees and mountain ash set out by the encouragement of blackberries and dog roses wherever they can be allowed to grow and where birds are tempted to stay in winter by liberal scatterings of grain foods and table scraps Within this little estate there were one year forty nests of thrush and blackbird Now supposing these birds bred only once in the year which is very improbable and reared only three birds apiece which is equally so and that half were killed or died during the year there would then be left twice as many thrushes as in the year before Forty pairs would become eighty eighty a hundred and sixty a hundred and sixty three hundred and twenty and so on till five years later there would be over ten thousand pairs of thrushes allowing all along for the same excessive proportion of casualties breeding on thirty acres and if each pair hatched five birds there would be fifty thousand thrushes all together To be continue in this ebook The College Standard Dictionary of the English Language ... 2,500 Pictorial Illustrations Frank H.
