Louise Nevelson: Light and Shadow Laurie Wilson, 2016-12-16 The most complete biography of the iconic sculptor Louise Nevelson the groundbreaking artist and fixture of New York's art world based on hours of interviews the author conducted at the height of Nevelson's fame In 1929 Louise Nevelson was a disappointed housewife with a young son surrounded by New York's vibrant artistic community but unable to fully engage with it By 1950 she was an artist living on her own financially dependent on her family but she had received a glimmer of recognition from the establishment inclusion in a group show at the Whitney Museum of American Art In 1980 Nevelson celebrated her second Whitney retrospective Her work was held in public collections around the world her massive steel sculptures appeared in public spaces in seventeen states including the Louise Nevelson Plaza in New York City's Financial District The story of Nevelson's artistic spiritual even physical transformation she developed a taste for outrageous outfits and false eyelashes made of mink is dramatic complex and inseparable from major historical and cultural shifts of the twentieth century particularly in the art world Art historian and psychoanalyst Laurie Wilson brings a unique and sensitive perspective to Nevelson's story drawing on hours of interviews she conducted with Nevelson and her circle Over 100 images many of them drawn from personal archives and never before published make this the most visually and narratively comprehensive biography of this remarkable artist yet published

Louise Nevelson Laurie Lisle, 2016-03-08 Louise Nevelson one of the most important American sculptors of the twentieth century was a beautiful woman who lived so audacious a life that by the time of her death she was a legend both inside and outside the art world Born Leah Berliawsky in Czarist Russia in 1899 she grew up in Maine ostracized as a Jew and a foreigner At twenty she escaped to Manhattan as Mrs Charles Nevelson eventually leaving her husband for a life devoted to art She lived and loved with lusty abandon often in poverty and obscurity until she finally achieved fame and fortune at sixty This biography of a monstre sacre is a tale of hard tacks heroism and heedless swipes at those who dared to love her said Interview magazine Nevelson found inspiration in cubism primitive art and her own unconscious creating a rich iconography of images With black white or gold paint and perfect placement she transformed old pieces of wood picked up on the street into powerful sculptures In later years she appeared in mink eyelashes and flamboyant costumes all the while going to her studio every day before dawn to add to the astonishing body of work now in collections of museums around the world Laurie Lisle interviewed Nevelson before the artist s death in 1988 as well as her lovers family members artist friends and many others This biography provides fascinating insights and information discovered in archives and public records letters and diaries and the artist s own prose and poetry Now in a revised e book edition Louise Nevelson A Passionate Life is the only biography of this important American sculptor It is impressive in its thoroughness which nonetheless results in good reading by virtue of its interweaving of personal and professional information its eclectic introduction of psychological analysis and a phraseology that appreciates both the pain and the joy surrounding Nevelson s eccentric behavior according to Woman s Art Journal

The 20th Century Go-N Frank N. Magill,2014-03-05 Each volume of the Dictionary of World Biography contains 250 entries on the lives of the individuals who shaped their times and left their mark on world history This is not a who s who Instead each entry provides an in depth essay on the life and career of the individual concerned Essays commence with a quick reference section that provides basic facts on the individual's life and achievements. The extended biography places the life and works of the individual within an historical context and the summary at the end of each essay provides a synopsis of the individual's place in history. All entries conclude with a fully annotated bibliography. Unforgettable New Canaanites Warren Allen Smith, 2012-04-05 New Canaan, Connecticut is one of the richest towns in the U.S. The book is a compilation of 140 arbitrarily chosen individuals who have been past or present residents from moralist Anthony Comstock the first female ambulance surgeon and the inventor of the Tommy Gun to David Letterman Paul Simon and Brian Williams. All is documented and includes tales never before published. Major architects critics authors painters business CEOs IBM GE JetBlue Perkin Elmer inventors cartoonists sculptors teachers and humanities leaders lived in the small town with a private railroad track directly to Grand Central in New York City. The compilation includes negative as well as positive views. A Companion to Twentieth-Century American Drama David Krasner, 2008-04-15 This Companion provides an original and authoritative survey of twentieth century American drama studies written by some of the best scholars and critics in the field. Balances consideration of canonical material with discussion of works by previously marginalized playwrights. Includes studies of leading dramatists such as Tennessee Williams Arthur Miller Eugene O'Neill and Gertrude Stein. Allows readers to make new links between particular plays and playwrights. Examines the movements that framed the century such as the Harlem Renaissance lesbian and gay drama and the solo performances of the 1980s and 1990s. Situates American drama within larger discussions about American ideas and culture. Living Materials Oliver Andrews, 1988-09-23 Every material has an active presence and every material is susceptible to change. The task of the sculptor is to understand the natural properties of a chosen material to know in the process of creation how best to work with or against its characteristics. In this generously illustrated studio manual sculptor Oliver Andrews takes a new approach to sculpture focusing on how the innate assertiveness of materials affects the complex act of making a sculpture. Conversations with Edward Albee Edward Albee, 1988 The influential American playwright discusses his work the nature of art the role of the unconscious American culture and the theater. Women, Aging, and Art Frima Fox Hofrichter, Midori Yoshimoto, 2022-07-28 In light of the global aging crisis and concerns this book sheds a light on images of old women through twelve varied representations from diverse cultures spanning medieval to contemporary times and provides a counter to the stereotypes.
