Louisianas Capitols The Power The Beauty:

Louisiana History, 2002 No Spark of Malice William Arceneaux, 2004-10-01 On April 22 1896 Martin Begnaud was brutally murdered in his general store in Scott Station Louisiana He was bound gagged blindfolded stabbed more than fifty times and robbed of over 5 000 Ten months later after one of the most extensive manhunts in nineteenth century Louisiana public shock and outrage reemerged when two teenage brothers from France Ernest and Alexis Blanc were arrested for the crime William Arceneaux sets the story of Begnaud s murder the Blanc brothers trial and the media circus surrounding it all against the backdrop of Acadian history from the 1604 establishment of a French colony in the Canadian maritime provinces to the eventual creation of a New Acadia in South Louisiana By intertwining a suspenseful account of this heinous crime with an exploration of the citizens it affected No Spark of Malice provides insight into a fascinating people place and era

Louisiana's Capitols Lawrence N. Powell, 1995-08-01 The Booklover's Guide to New Orleans Susan Larson, 1999 The Booklover s Guide to New Orleans is Susan Larson s delightfully informative response to questions most frequently asked her as book editor of the Times Picayune Tourists and locals alike want to know what to read where authors lived which bookstores to browse and when literary festivals are scheduled Now all the answers can be found in this one convenient volume the only complete directory of New Orleans s write life available Whether you are passing through the Big Easy residing there or longing to visit these pages will heighten your experience of one of the most intoxicating places on the planet taking you into countless nooks and crannies along its storied streets Book jacket African American Foreign Correspondents Jason Berry, 2000-09-01 Since the late 1970s Louisiana a state long known for outrageous politicians has witnessed a blossoming of the arts and their enthusiastic reception by a national and even world wide audience From John Kennedy Toole s A Confederacy of Dunces to James Lee Burke s detective Dave Robicheaux from singers Fats Domino and Aaron Neville to jazz patriarch Ellis Marsalis and his music making family from George Rodrigue s blue dog to Chef Paul Prudhomme s transcendent cooking the list is long for Louisiana talent Louisiana Faces documents in images and words the human texture of this remarkable renaissance not only the painters sculptors chefs musicians poets and writers who create the art but also the ordinary people who in their daily and seasonal rhythms inform that art Some are living legends others well kept secrets all have a place and a face at the feast Philip Gould confirms his own part in the renaissance with the 125 stunning portraits in Louisiana Faces Gould s lively poignant photographs capture a range of personalities in timeless settings that mirror the larger culture whether masked riders in a Cajun carnival or jazzmen playing a street funeral Writer Jason Berry complements Gould s images with a probing witty essay that explores the parallels between art and life Using a meld of interviews anecdotes history and commentary Berry treats outsized political figures and pop culture celebrities as a parade of inspiration for Louisiana artists An Unnatural Metropolis Craig E. Colten, 2005 Strategically situated at the gateway to the Mississippi River yet standing atop a former swamp New Orleans was from the first what geographer Peirce

Lewis called an impossible but inevitable city How New Orleans came to be taking shape between the mutual and often contradictory forces of nature and urban development is the subject of An Unnatural Metropolis Craig E Colten traces engineered modifications to New Orleans's natural environment from 1800 to 2000 Before the city could swell in size and commercial importance as its nineteenth century boosters envisioned builders had to wrest it from its waterlogged site protect it from floods expel disease and supply basic services using local resources Colten shows how every manipulation of the environment made an impact on the city's social geography as well often with unequal adverse consequences for minorities and how each still requires maintenance and improvement today For example while the massive levee system has controlled the unpredictable Mississippi it also captures heavy down pours creating a new set of internal flood problems Urban geographers frequently have portrayed cities as the antithesis of nature

Time's Tapestry Leta Weiss Marks, 1997-10-01 More than forty years after leaving her native New Orleans as a young woman Leta Weiss Marks awakened to the realization that her family history there was almost beyond the horizon of living memory Rescuing it for herself and posterity became her mission and brought her home again In a compelling elegant blend of fact and fiction Marks weaves a tapestry of family members and events drawing mainly upon interviews with her nonagenarian mother and aunt Letters archival research and Marks's own recollections and imagination also contribute to the composition which she calls a song of myself and my family At the center are Marks's mother and father and the highs and lows of their courtship and marriage Caroline Dreyfous was born into a prominent Jewish family of New Orleans Leon Weiss seventeen years her senior always struggled to gain their acceptance He was an ambitious talented architect the driving force in the famous firm of Weiss Dreyfous and Seifert chosen by Huey Long to design the new state capitol and governor's mansion New Orleans Charity Hospital and other landmarks He also was implicated in the Louisiana Scandals and sentenced to two years in federal prison Time's Tapestry is in part Marks's attempt to peel back her mother's reticent yet unwavering loyalty toward her father and understand this man who died when Marks was only twenty one and preparing to move to Connecticut Stories and memories of three generations of the Dreyfous branch of the family tree complete Marks's portrait She makes vivid not only the personalities of her kin but also the times in which they lived conjuring the New Orleans of her great grandfather grandparents parents and own childhood segregation the alternate inclusion and exclusion of the Jewish community the fervid politics of the Long era and juxtaposing those scenes with her experiences as an adult returning to visit her family in a greatly changed city Charming and evocative a superb example of creative nonfiction Time's Tapestry makes for both an intimate family album and a priceless record of New Orleans cultural social and political history
