and social hierarchies that have influenced art's creation and consumption. Ethical considerations such as cultural appropriation are also addressed. Beginning with early collections from ancient civilizations and the medieval period, the narrative progresses through the Renaissance and Baroque eras, the rise of private collecting in the 18th and 19th centuries, and concludes with contemporary collecting practices including digital art and globalization.

A companion to the Louvre Musée du Louvre, 1950     The Grand Louvre, 198?     Mesopotamia Ariane Thomas, Timothy Potts, 2020

Mesopotamia in modern day Iraq was home to the remarkable ancient civilizations of Sumer, Akkad, Babylonia, and Assyria. From the rise of the first cities around 3500 BCE through the mighty empires of Nineveh and Babylon to the demise of its native culture around 100 CE, Mesopotamia produced some of the most powerful and captivating art of antiquity and led the world in astronomy, mathematics, and other sciences, a legacy that lives on today. Mesopotamia Civilization Begins presents a rich panorama of ancient Mesopotamia's history from its earliest prehistoric cultures to its conquest by Alexander the Great in 331 BCE. This catalogue records the beauty and variety of the objects on display on loan from the Louvre's unparalleled collection of ancient Near Eastern antiquities: cylinder seals, monumental sculptures, cuneiform tablets, jewelry, glazed bricks, paintings, figurines, and more. Essays by international experts explore a range of topics from the earliest French excavations to Mesopotamia's economy, religion, cities, cuneiform writing, rulers, and history, as well as its enduring presence in the contemporary imagination.

Worlds in a Museum Louvre Abu Dhabi, École du Louvre, 2020-09-30. Held on the occasion of Louvre Abu Dhabi's first anniversary, the symposium Worlds in a Museum addressed the topic of museums in the era of globalisation, exploring contemporary museology and the preservation and presentation of culture within the context of changing societies. Departing from the historical museum structure inherited from the Enlightenment, leading experts from art, cultural, and academic institutions explore present-day achievements and challenges in the study, display, and interpretation of art history and artefacts. How are global and local objects and narratives balanced, particularly in consideration of diverse audiences? How do we foster perspective and multiculturalism while addressing politicised notions of centre and periphery? As they abandon classical canons and categories, how are museums and cultural entities redefining themselves beyond predefined concepts of geography and history? This collection of essays arises from the symposium Worlds in a Museum, organised by Louvre Abu Dhabi and École du Louvre.

The representation of Roma in major European museum collections Sarah Carmona, 2020-09-02. What do works of art teach us from their period of creation? What do they teach us about human interaction about social groups? The Council of Europe is a key player in the fight to respect the rights and equal treatment of Roma and Travellers. As such, it implements various actions aimed at combating discrimination, facilitating the access of Roma and Travellers to public services and justice, giving visibility to their history, culture, and languages, and ensuring their participation in the different levels of decision-making. Another aspect of the Council of Europe's work is to improve the wider public's understanding of Roma and their place in Europe. Knowing and understanding Roma and

Travellers their customs their professions their history their migration and the laws affecting them are indispensable elements for interpreting the situation of Roma and Travellers today and understanding the discrimination they face This publication focuses on what the works exhibited at the Prado Museum tell us about the place and perception of Roma in Europe from the 15th to the 19th centuries Students aged 12 to 18 teachers and any other visitor to the Prado interested in this theme will find detailed worksheets on 15 paintings representing Roma and Travellers and a booklet to foster reflection on the works and their context while creating links with our contemporary perception of Roma and Travellers in today s society     Louvre ,1999
