If you are in a relationship, whether it is new, old, great, good, mediocre, or bad, the 10 Love Habits in Love Simplified will help you make the changes that you need to make in order to rekindle or amp up your romantic connection. Why do so many fail when it comes to finding lasting love? Love should have been easy enough, yet so many fail at love. Why? We are all born with the capacity to love and the craving to be loved. In this book, you will find a new understanding of what love really is and a set of practical, simple steps to make love bloom in your life and your relationship now and forever. This may be true of falling in love, but mature love is more than just an emotion and it can and should be approached with deliberate thought and purposeful intentions. This book is all about teaching you how to do that. The author considers himself blessed with unusual success in love, having spent nearly four decades practicing loving relationships. He always believed that his approach to love could be beneficial to others as well. So, drawing on his experience as an executive coach and consultant, he developed a framework to translate his personal experience into a Universal one. The result is this book, Love Simplified. The breakthrough came when I had an epiphany. David explains: "I suddenly realized that the same principles that create Olympic athletes, high flying CEOs, world renowned artists, and self-made millionaires govern your success in love and your ability to create and maintain long-lasting happy relationships."
