The adventures of Philip on his way through the world William Makepeace Thackeray, 1883 Catherine a story was the first full length work of fiction produced by William Makepeace Thackeray It first appeared in serialized installments in Fraser's Magazine between May 1839 and February 1840 as a satire on the popular Newgate school of crime fiction Based on the life of Catherine Hayes an eighteenth century criminal who was burned at the stake in 1726 for murdering her husband Thackeray developed a sneaking kindness for his heroine and the novel made Catherine and her roguish companions seem rather appealing which was far from the author's intention

In God's Way Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson, 1908 Works of Love Robert L. Perkins, 1999 To claim that Works of Love is an important philosophical essay is to assume hazardous burden of proof The book's title is an allusion to the Bible's injunction that we should love our neighbor as we love ourselves a far cry far instance from Diotima's ladder of erotic desire up which we climb from the love of bodies until we catch a vision of that single sea of beauty beauty itself Plato Symposium This contrast given that some of some of our neighbors may not be particularly likable or one may even be a determined enemy suggests immediately to some that a book with such an obviously religious title must be excessively moralistic and at best full of sermon helps for the harried clergy or at worst laden with rules for the unlearned laity A casual perusal of a few paragraphs however shows these put down views of the book to be unfounded
