experienced combat and lived in a space and time defined by death and the will to overcome that fear That shadow was ever present and I fought hard and willed myself not to be engulfed by it I was much more to my family than a soldier and I wanted my daughter to know the boy that I was and what made me into the soldier that I became This journey was filled with periods of joy and great happiness as well as uncertainty and sadness as a boy and much the same as a soldier I excelled at the things that I applied myself to but was always challenged to perform in order to continue receiving the pleasures of everyday life or to survive a day in combat So both my childhood and my profession were valleys oftentimes reflecting low points and high points with a sense of duty to survive and overcome the day at hand Love in Flesh and Bone Amy E.
