Love Marriage:

Gospel Love, Marriage and Divorce Randall Lamb, 2020-03-05 The centrality of God in all things is not a novel concept to Christianity at least not in theory For centuries it would appear that the Church has somehow allowed herself to remove the God centered gospel definition from marriage and has subsequently fashioned a culturally subjective definition of love marriage and divorce that has left God in many respects far from the center This book however will pay less attention to our own domestic legacies of love marriage and divorce It is more so about the church covenants conditions true fidelity perseverance God centered joy authenticity fraud legalism and apostasy It is a journey into the kingdom of God wherein the visible and invisible church along with love marriage and divorce all seem to collide with the gospel of glory and grace

Arranging Marriage Marian Aguiar, 2018-01-02 The first critical analysis of contemporary arranged marriage among South Asians in a global context Arranged marriage is an institution of global fascination an object of curiosity revulsion outrage and even envy Marian Aguiar provides the first sustained analysis of arranged marriage as a transnational cultural phenomenon revealing how its meaning has been continuously reinvented within the South Asian diaspora of Britain the United States and Canada Aguiar identifies and analyzes representations of arranged marriage in an interdisciplinary set of texts from literary fiction and Bollywood films to digital and print media to contemporary law and policy on forced marriage Aguiar interprets depictions of South Asian arranged marriage to show we are in a moment of conjugal globalization identifying how narratives about arranged marriage bear upon questions of consent agency state power and national belonging Aguiar argues that these discourses illuminate deep divisions in the processes of globalization constructed on a fault line between individualist and collectivist agency and in the process critiques neoliberal celebrations of culture as choice that attempt to bridge that separation Aguiar advocates situating arranged marriage discourses within their social and material contexts so as to see past reductive notions of culture and grasp the global forces mediating increasingly polarized visions of agency

Making the Right Choice Asha L. Abeyasekera, 2021-03-12 Making the Right Choice unravels the entangled relationship between marriage morality and the desire for modernity as it plays out in the context of middle class status concerns and aspirations for upward social mobility within the Sinhala Buddhist community in urban Sri Lanka By focusing on individual life histories spanning three generations the book illuminates how narratives about a gendered self and narratives about modernity are mutually constituted and intrinsically tied to notions of agency The book uncovers how becoming modern in urban Sri Lanka rather than causing inter generational conflict is a collective aspiration realized through the efforts of bringing up educated and independent women capable of making right choices The consequence of this collective investment is a feminist conundrum agency does not denote the right to choose but the duty to make the right choice hence agency is experienced not as a sense of freedom but rather as a burden of responsibility The God Within Speaks Hazel Sinanan,2013-09 The God Within Speaks is intended to inspire others to take inward steps through intent desire and action to allow their higher selves to work and live through them in order to facilitate higher consciousness which will open them up to the flow of the Mighty Source As the author unites her mind with that of her higher self allows her higher self to think with and through her and surrenders to the insights of her higher mind wisdom flows The result is inspired thinking that manifests in wisdom teachings aimed at opening up the minds of the readers to contemplate new perspectives and act as a catalyst for truth seeking Suicide in Sri Lanka Tom Widger,2015-05-15 Why people kill themselves remains an enduring and unanswered question With a focus on Sri Lanka a country that for several decades has reported epidemic levels of suicidal behaviour this book develops a unique perspective linking the causes and meanings of suicidal practices to social processes across moments lifetimes and history Extending anthropological approaches to practice learning and agency anthropologist Tom Widger draws from long term fieldwork in a Sinhala Buddhist community to develop an ethnographic theory of suicide that foregrounds local knowledge and sets out a charter for prevention The book highlights the motives of children and adults becoming suicidal and how certain gender age class relationships and violence are prone to give rise to suicidal responses By linking these experiences to emotional states it develops an ethnopsychiatric model of suicide rooted in social practice Widger then goes on to examine how suicides are resolved at village and national levels tracing the roots of interventions to the politics of colonial and post colonial social welfare and health regimes Exploring local accounts of suicide as both evidence for the suicide epidemic and as an ethos of suicidality shaping subjective worlds Suicide in Sri Lanka shows how anthropological analysis can offer theoretical as well as policy insights With the inclusion of straightforward summaries and implications for prevention at the end of each chapter this book has relevance for specialists and non specialists alike It represents an important new contribution to South Asian Studies Social Anthropology and Medical Anthropology as well as to cross cultural Suicidology
