Love That Dares To Question A Bishop Challenges His Church:

A Love that Dares to Question John Heaps, 2002 In this courageous book Bishop Heaps probes areas in which the church often appears unjust or irrelevant He brings to the forefront issues that need rethinking Perversion of Power Mary Gail Frawley-O'Dea, 2007 Since 2002 the Roman Catholic Church has been in crisis over the sexual abuse of minors by priests and the cover up of those crimes by bishops Over 11 000 alleged victims have reported their experiences to the Church and more than 4 700 priests since 1950 have been credibly accused of sexually victimizing minors The Church has paid over one billion dollars to adults who claim to have been sexually abused by priests and there is no end in sight to these lawsuits Celibacy homosexuality in the priesthood the infiltration into the priesthood of secular moral relativism too much liberalism in the Church since Vatican II damaging rollback of Vatican II reforms by conservative prelates all have been suggested as causes for the crisis This book however begins with the premise that because the pattern of abuse and cover up was so similar across the world there is something fundamentally awry with Church traditions and power structures in relationship to sexuality and sexual abuse Specifically in chapters on suffering and sadomasochism bodies and gender desire and sexuality celibacy and homosexuality the author concludes that aspects of the Catholic theology of sexuality set the stage for the abuse of minors and its cover up Frawley O Dea also analyzes the American bishops lack of pastoral care and tendency towards clerical narcissism the belief that the needs of the hierarchy represent the needs of the wider Church as central factors in the scandal She balances this criticism with a discussion of the backgrounds of the bishops presiding over the crisis and the challenges they faced in their relationships with the Pope and Vatican officials Drawing on twenty years of clinical experience she imagines the dynamics of sexual abuse both from the victim s point of view and from the priest s and she probes why the Church hierarchy fellow priests and lay people were silent for so long Finally Frawley O Dea examines factors internal to the Church and outside of it that drew this scandal into the public square and kept it there Journeys of Faith

Zondervan, 2012-03-06 Research indicates that on average Americans change their religious affiliation at least once during their lives Journeys of Faith examines the movement between four Christian traditions and what led believers to make a shift Four prominent converts to Eastern Orthodoxy Catholicism Evangelicalism and Anglicanism describe their new faith traditions and doctrines and their spiritual journeys into them Response chapters offer respectful critiques Contributors include Wilbur Ellsworth Eastern Orthodoxy with a response by Craig Blaising Francis J Beckwith Roman Catholicism with Gregg Allison responding Chris Castaldo Evangelicalism and Brad S Gregory s Catholic response Lyle W Dorsett Anglicanism with a response by Robert A Peterson This book provides you with a series of first hand accounts of thoughtful Christians changing religious affiliation or remaining true to the traditions they have always known and their rationale for those decisions Gain a wealth of insight into the attractions of each of the represented denominations and an understanding of the current faith migration within the church today African Religion in the Dialogue Debate Laurenti Magesa, 2010

Dialogue between African Religion and other world religions has regrettably been a much neglected area in formal religious discourse in Africa to date. Moreover up to now the imperative of dialogue in the process of evangelism figures only peripherally if at all in the study of African Christian Theology. This book is probably the first deliberate extensive and well argued attempt by an African theologian to fill this unfortunate lacuna. How can Christian and African spiritualities interact with and enrich each other on the basis of mutual respect without as has historically been the case the one necessarily seeking to eradicate the other. This is the fundamental question of dialogue discussed in the pages of this book. Dr Laurenti Magesa is Senior Lecturer in African Theology at the Maryknoll Institute of African Studies and the Jesuit School of Theology Catholic University of Eastern Africa Nairobi Kenya.

Mission for Diversity Elochukwu E. Uzukwu, 2015. In this multi cultural and multi religious world do Christian mission studies have any place in the academic realm. What theological possibilities and practical insights did Vatican II create for missiology. In this book experts from Africa Asia the Caribbean Europe the Middle East and North America respond to these questions. They explore mission as intercultural studies and they adopt decolonial thinking to privilege knowledges from the margins of our wounded world. Themes such as interculturality interreligious dialogue and inculturation justice peace building and reconciliation expand Vatican II to celebrate mission among and with the nations. Series Interreligious Studies Vol 8 Subject Religious Studies Christianity.

Thinking Things Through Andrew Murray, 2012-11-30. The life of a philosopher is foremost the life of thinking but it is also the life of imagination that dreams of and investigates possibilities that might not otherwise have been raised. The life of a Christian is the life of Faith Hope and Charity and so it both looks to things beyond this world and regards this world with compassion. The two can work together. Faith softens reason and reason sharpens Faith. Imagination finds new ways to articulate in concrete circumstances what has belonged to long traditions of thought. These essays cover a wide range of topics either by way of simple reflection on life or in response to issues that arose around the time of their writing. The period of their writing was a varied one. Life looked so stable in the mid nineties that we contemplated Australia becoming a republic and sought Aboriginal reconciliation. It remained uncomplicated at the time of the Olympic Games in 2000 but became troubled by political events and by the terrorist attacks of 2001. The essays respond to the issues of this time. Four essays not published in the Weekly have been added to take note of more recent changes that have taken place in the Church and in our world.

Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity, 2016-04-26. The Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity Movements Institutions Allegiance traces how the largest religion in the world continues to be expressed in energetic global dynamic forms. In contemporary times Christianity is increasingly exposed to divisions not only through its traditional channels Roman Catholic Protestant and the Orthodoxy nor conservative and liberal streams but numerous nuanced articulations. This is reflected in the roles of clergy and lay people in organisational dynamics sources of allegiance and articulations of the faith movements of renewal and revivalism syncretic modes and broader relationships with wider cultural trajectories and changing social circumstances Collectively the contributors to this volume offer a comprehensive exploration of these themes The volume is a companion to the Handbook of Global Contemporary Christianity Gender, Religion and Diversity Ursula King, Tina Beattie, 2005-10-01 Gender Religion and Diversity provides an introduction to some of the most challenging perspectives in the contemporary study of gender and religion In recent years women's and gender studies have transformed the international study of religion through the use of interdisciplinary and cross cultural methodologies which have opened up new and highly controversial issues challenging previous paradigms and creating fresh fields of study As this book shows gender studies in religion raises new and difficult questions about the gendered nature of religious phenomena the relationship between power and knowledge the authority of religious texts and institutions and the involvement and responsibility of the researcher undertaking such studies as a gendered subject This book is the outcome of an international collaboration between a wide range of researchers from different countries and fields of religious studies The range and diversity of their contributions is the very strength of this book for it shows how gendering works in studying different religious materials whether foundational texts from the Bible or Koran philosophical ideas about truth essentialism history or symbolism the impact of French feminist thinkers such as Irigaray or Kristeva or again critical perspectives dealing with the impact of race gender and class on religion or by deconstructing religious data from a postcolonial critical standpoint or examining the impact of imperialism and orientalism on religion and gender Choice, 2002 The Tablet, 2004 The international Catholic weekly Faith That Dares to Speak Donald B. Cozzens, 2017-06-15 The Catholic Church at the dawn of the twenty first century is arguably the last feudal system in the West Once the feudal structure of the church is recognized the bishops response to the clergy abuse crisis comes into focus Bishops and other church authorities reacted to the scandal the only way their feudal culture allowed with secrecy denial and a no holds barred effort to protect the reputation authority and resources of the institution While tragic and in many cases reprehensible their response was consistent with the way feudal systems function In Faith That Dares to Speak Donald Cozzens addresses the laity's role in challenging a feudal church to embrace accountability and transparency and to bring light where there is now darkness Awakened to their dignity and responsibility as full equal and adult members of the church lay Catholics in North America are finding their voice and daring to speak to church authorities long accustomed to deferential obedience and compliance Church life Cozzens believes will never be quite the same The current crisis in the Church while profoundly disturbing and troubling offers possibilities for a renewed and revitalized Church In Faith That Dares to Speak Cozzens underscores the critical need for laity and clergy to speak honestly and courageously to church authorities He addresses the obstacles to faithful speech as well as the spiritual and moral foundations of mature adult conversation and commitment The current crisis in the Church while profoundly disturbing and troubling offers possibilities for a renewed and revitalized Church In Faith That Dares to Speak Cozzens underscores the critical need for laity and clergy to speak honestly and courageously to church authorities He addresses the obstacles to faithful speech as well as the spiritual and moral foundations of mature adult conversation and commitment Chapters include The Courage to Speak The Humility to Listen Love That Dares to Question The Liberation of the Laity Voice of the Faithful and Contemplative Conversation American Book Publishing Record ,2002 Julian's Cell Ralph Milton,2002 Julian s Cell is a unique work of historical fiction an attempt to imagine Julian of Norwich s life as it could have been This is the earthy story of Katherine daughter of a stern and bitter mother Married at age 16 to Walter she loses both her children and her husband during the great plagues She has visions of the passion of Christ and becomes an anchoress she is buried alive in a cell attached to St Julian s church to lead a life devoted to prayer and spiritual counsel Today she is known as Mother Julian or Julian of Norwich the first woman to write in the English language and one of the greatest Christian theologians and mystics of all time Challenges to Theology in Africa Today Patrick Ryan,2002 The Publishers Weekly ,2002 From Enemy to Brother John Connelly,2012-03-19 In 1965 the Second Vatican Council declared that God loves the Jews Yet the Church had taught for centuries that Jews were cursed by God and had mostly kept silent as Jews were slaughtered by Nazis How did an institution whose wisdom is said to be unchanging undertake one of the largest yet most undiscussed ideological swings in modern history The Colored Man in the Methodist Episcopal Church L. M. Hagood,2021-11-05 In The Colored Man in the Methodist Episcopal Church L M Hagood presents a compelling exploration of the intersection of race and religion within the context of American Methodism The book is a rich tapestry woven with historical narratives theological reflections and sociopolitical critiques reflecting the struggles and triumphs of African American congregants in a predominantly white denomination Written in an accessible yet scholarly style Hagood employs a blend of firsthand accounts and archival research to unravel themes of social justice identity and faith that resonate deeply within the contemporary discourse on race in America L M Hagood a devoted historian and theologian writes from a position of both personal passion and professional insight His academic background and involvement in church communities provide him with a unique vantage point from which to examine the often overlooked contributions of Black individuals to the Methodist tradition Influenced by both the civil rights movement and his commitment to inclusivity within faith communities Hagood seeks to reclaim and celebrate the narratives of African Americans in a faith where they have historically been marginalized This book is essential reading for scholars students and anyone interested in the complex interplay of race and faith Hagood s meticulous research and poignant storytelling invite readers to reconsider the historical and ongoing contributions of African Americans within the Methodist Episcopal Church making it not only a scholarly work but also a call to action for greater inclusion and equity in religious spaces In this enriched edition we have carefully created added value for your reading experience Hand picked Memorable Quotes shine a spotlight on moments of literary brilliance Interactive footnotes clarify unusual references historical allusions and archaic phrases for an effortless more informed read The Living Church ,1943 AAR/SBL Annual Meeting Program
