Harty, 2020-04-16 In this first ever book length treatment 11 scholars with a variety of backgrounds in medieval studies film studies and medievalism discuss how historical and fictional medieval women have been portrayed on film and their connections to the feminist movements of the 20th and 21st centuries From detailed studies of the portrayal of female desire and sexuality to explorations of how and when these women gain agency these essays look at the different ways these women reinforce defy and complicate traditional gender roles Individual essays discuss the complex and sometimes conflicting cinematic treatments of Guinevere Morgan Le Fay Isolde Maid Marian Lady Godiva Heloise Eleanor of Aquitaine and Joan of Arc Additional essays discuss the women in Fritz Lang's The Nibelungen Liv Ullmann's Kristin Lavransdatter and Bertrand Tavernier's La Passion Beatrice The Intimate Frontier Ignacio Martínez, 2019-10-22 For millennia friendships have framed the most intimate and public contours of our everyday lives In this book Ignacio Martínez tells the multilayered story of how the ideals logic rhetoric and emotions of friendship helped structure an early yet remarkably nuanced fragile and sporadic form of civil society societas civilis at the furthest edges of the Spanish Empire Spaniards living in the isolated borderlands region of colonial Sonora were keen to develop an ideologically relevant and socially acceptable form of friendship with Indigenous people that could act as a functional substitute for civil law and governance thereby regulating Native behavior But as frontier society grew in complexity and sophistication Indigenous and mixed raced people also used the language of friendship and the performance of emotion for their respective purposes in the process becoming skilled negotiators to meet their own best interests In northern New Spain friendships were sincere and authentic when they had to be and cunningly malleable when the circumstances demanded it The tenuous origins of civil society thus developed within this highly contentious social laboratory in which friendships authentic and feigned set the social and ideological parameters for conflict and cooperation Far from the coffee houses of Restoration London or the lecture halls of the Republic of Letters the civil society illuminated by Martínez stumbled forward amid the ambiguities and contradictions of colonialism and the obstacles posed by the isolation and violence of the Sonoran Desert Host Bibliographic Record for Bound with Item Barcode 30112114734418 and Others, 1911 The Jesuit relations and allied documents Reuben G.
