New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black Women Writers LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-03-03 New Criticism and Pedagogical Directions for Contemporary Black

Women Writers is a collection of critical and pedagogical essays that shed new light on the creative depths of Black women writers. On the one hand, some Black women writers have been heavily anthologized; they have more often than not been restricted by critical metanarratives. Some of their works have been lionized while others remain neglected. On the other hand, some Black women writers have been ignored and understudied. This collection corrects the gaps in our critical thinking about Black women writers by introducing them to a new generation of undergraduate and graduate students and by presenting pedagogical essays to our colleagues currently working in the field.

Communication against Capital Rianne Subijanto, 2025-02-15

Communication against Capital explores the revolutionary communication strategies of the pergerakan merah, the anticolonial red movement in 1920s Indonesia. Rianne Subijanto tells the story of ordinary lower class women and children and people of diverse races and ethnicities who waged their battles against Dutch colonialism within multiple arenas of communication, including political associations, assemblies, printed matter, schools, and shipping lines. Existing communication technologies were repurposed into mechanisms of struggle and used as weapons in anticolonial and anticapitalist resistance. In this process, communist ideas merged with ideals drawn from the Enlightenment to shape the emancipatory spirit of Indonesians. This red enlightenment motivated the production of revolutionary communication strategies of mobilization. Subijanto's innovative work shows that the novel techniques of the pergerakan merah served to shift anticolonial mobilization in Indonesia from warfare to modern forms of communication.
