Mr Forgetful:

Mr. Forgetful Roger Hargreaves, 1998-08-24 Mr Forgetful has an important message to deliver if only he could remember what it is Mr. Forgetful Adam Hargreaves, Roger Hargreaves, 2021 Mr Forgetful has a very amusing day but when he sits down to think about it he cannot remember anything that happened Mr. Forgetful Learns a Lesson Roger Hargreaves, 1960-01-01 Disability Duplicity and the Formative Cultural Identity Politics of Generation X David Bolt, 2023-09-21 Disability is history and futurity culture and society practice and theory work and play an immense desire for life by which body and mind are dragged kicking and screaming into each and every new day Using autocritical discourse analysis a new hybrid research method that combines aspects of the established methods of critical discourse analysis CDA and autoethnography this book explores the formative cultural identity politics of disability via cultural stations of UK popular culture These cultural stations include action figures children's books television miniseries comics comedy films teenage drama and sitcoms the punk rock movement and alternative comedy Although the cultural stations range from toys and comics to aggressive music and chaotic sitcoms all are considered with a focus on the language and tropes of disability Indeed most of the works are not remembered as portrayals of disability but the book's analysis reveals flash if not fleeting representations that when centralised clarify patterns of duplicity Via the language of power and the power of language all these texts are found to have contributed to the formative cultural identity politics of disability It will be of interest to all scholars and students of disability studies sociology toy studies comic studies humour studies television studies popular music studies gender studies literary studies and cultural studies Recreative Minds Gregory Currie, Ian Ravenscroft, 2002 Annotation Recreative Minds develops a philosophical theory of imagination that draws upon recent theories and results in psychology Ideas about how we read the minds of others have put the concept of imagination firmly back on the agenda for philosophy and psychology Currie and Ravenscroft present a theory of what they call imaginative projection they show how it fits into a philosophically motivated picture of the mind and of mental states and how it illuminates and is illuminated by recent developments in cognitive psychology They argue that we need to recognize a category of desire in imagination and that supposition and fantasy should be classed as forms of imagination They accommodate some of the peculiarities of perceptual forms of imagining such as visual and motor imagery and suggest that they are important for mind reading They argue for a novel view about the relations between imagination and pretence and suggest that imagining can be but need not be the cause of pretending They show how the theory accommodates but goes beyond the idea of mental simulation and argue that the contrast between simulation and theory is neither exclusive nor exhaustive They argue that we can understand certain developmental and psychiatric disorders as arising from faulty imagination Throughout they link their discussion to the uses of imagination in our encounters with art and they conclude with a chapter on responses to tragedy The final chapter also offers a theory of the emotions that suggests that these states have much in common with perceptual states Currie and Ravenscroft offer a lucid exploration of a fascinating subject for readers in philosophy psychology and aesthetics Mr Men Mr Forgetful Egmont Books, Limited,2009-07-01 The Secret Artist Lesley
