Muslim Reformist Political Thought Sarfraz Khan, 2003-05-01 There are two main trends distinguishable amongst Muslim reformists revivalists and modernists This book charts and analyses the main trends of Muslim reformist political thought in Bukhara It is the first to utilize original sources preserved in Soviet archives that were previously inaccessible to western scholars The author has translated numerous original documents from Tajiki and Russian into English This book thus serves as a useful resource for students of Islam Central Asia the former Soviet Union and of law politics and philosophy

Muslim Reformist Political Thought Sarfraz Khan, 2013-05-13 There are two main trends distinguishable amongst Muslim reformists revivalists and modernists This book charts and analyses the main trends of Muslim reformist political thought in Bukhara It is the first to utilize original sources preserved in Soviet archives that were previously inaccessible to western scholars The author has translated numerous original documents from Tajiki and Russian into English This book thus serves as a useful resource for students of Islam Central Asia the former Soviet Union and of law politics and philosophy

Fallacy of Militant Ideology Munir Masood Marath, 2021-09-05 This book highlights the conflict between jihadist militants and the West as essentially ideological in character It has serious implications internalized by Muslim societies with the boundaries of faith changed by the interplay of socio political variables Violence emerged in Muslim societies as a means of emancipation or identity when the state could not resolve the conflict situation Although the militants were influenced by socio political factors they have always looked to religion to justify their acts of violence This book exposing the fallacy of the narrative evolved by the militants offers a counter narrative It reinterprets the primary sources unravels the historical and socio political constructs unmask the heroes and enemies challenges the dichotomies between theory and practice re establishes the boundaries between heresy and faith and attempts to transform the current ideological discourse This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the discourse between religion and security political Islam Islamic history jihad Middle Eastern studies and South Asian studies

The Islamic World Andrew Rippin, 2013-10-23 The Islamic World is an outstanding guide to Islamic faith and culture in all its geographical and historical diversity Written by a distinguished international team of scholars it elucidates the history philosophy and practice of one of the world's great religious traditions Its grounding in contemporary scholarship makes it an ideal reference source for students and scholars alike Edited by Andrew Rippin a leading scholar of Islam the volume covers the political geographical religious intellectual cultural and social worlds of Islam and offers insight into all aspects of Muslim life including the Qur'an and law philosophy science and technology art literature and film and much else It explores the concept of an Islamic world what makes it distinctive and how uniform is that distinctiveness across Muslim geographical regions and through history

Sharia in the Russian Empire Paolo Sartori, 2020-01-07 This book looks at how Islamic law was practiced in Russia from the conquest of the empire's first Muslim territories in the mid 1500s to the Russian Revolution of 1917 when the empire's Muslim population had exceeded 20 million It focuses on the training of Russian Muslim jurists the debates over legal authority within Muslim communities and the relationship between Islamic law and customary law Based upon difficult to access sources written in a variety of languages Arabic Chaghatay Kazakh Persian Tatar it offers scholars of Russian history Islamic history and colonial history an account of Islamic law in Russia of the same quality and detail as the scholarship currently available on Islam in the British and French colonial empires Encountering the Transnational Meena Sharify-Funk,2016-04-29 When Muslim women from diverse national and cultural contexts meet one another through transnational dialogue and networking what happens to their sense of identity and social agency Addressing this question Meena Sharify Funk encountered women activists and intellectuals in North America the Middle East South Asia and Southeast Asia women whose lives and visions have become linked by the transnational despite their differing circumstances and intellectual backgrounds The resultant work provides a rich and cliché bursting account of women's reflections on a wide range of topics including the status of women in Islam the role of women as interpreters of religious norms the relationship between secular and religious forms of self identification perceptions of Islamic Western relations experiences of marginalization and opportunities for empowerment Giving careful attention both to common threads in Muslim women's experiences and to the unique voices of remarkable women this is a compelling account of conversations that are bringing new energy and dynamism into women's activism in a world of collapsing distances Food Security and Political Stability in Tajikistan Raj Kumar

Sharma,2018-10-01 There are links between food security and political stability as was evident during the world food crisis of 2007-08 Food riots were witnessed in a number of countries contributing to political instability There are a number of dimensions to the problem of food insecurity in Tajikistan This book is an attempt to fill the academic void on Tajikistan especially pertaining to its food security This work traces the history of agriculture and food production in Tajikistan from mid 19th century when it came under Russian rule From its inception Tajikistan has been facing the geographic handicap as it is a mountainous country and only 7 percent of the total land is arable which limits its food production This book is a detailed study of how Soviet economic geography introduced intensive cotton cultivation in Tajikistan at the expense of food crops Soviet economic planners felt that a region with hot climate and large water resources should not attempt to grow grains but cotton In the contemporary context this book focuses on how the state and international actors have responded to the food insecurity in Tajikistan Most importantly the book also analyses the relationship between food security and political stability in Tajikistan 'Abdurra'uf Fitrat in Istanbul Zaynabidin Abdirashidov,2023-01-30 This book explores how to locate the sources which influenced the political social and ideological stance of a famous Turkestanian Jadid thinker writer journalist and scholar Abdurra'uf Fitrat 1886-1938 thus also putting in perspective some overall intellectual trends in Turkestan especially in Bukhara in the early 1910s Based on Fitrat's early publications the book discusses what intellectual milieu it was that shaped his worldview in the early 1910s a worldview that could be designated as a first attempt at freedom and sovereignty through Islam A thorough review of these publications also brings greater clarity to the issue of Fitrat's ethnical identity which sheds light on how he related to the worldwide community of Muslims and how he positioned himself towards political unity of the Muslim World Furthermore by scrutinizing Fitrat's intellectual legacy of 1910-1915 this book highlights some of the origins of Jadidism in Turkestan and places Turkestani Jadidism in the context of worldwide Muslim reformism at the turn of the 20th century

Polymaths of Islam James Pickett, 2020-09-15 Polymaths of Islam analyzes the social and intellectual power of religious leaders who created a shared culture that integrated Central Asia Iran and India from the mid eighteenth century through the early twentieth James Pickett demonstrates that Islamic scholars were simultaneously mystics and administrators judges and occultists physicians and poets This integrated understanding of the world of Islamic scholarship unlocks a different way of thinking about transregional exchange networks Pickett reveals a Persian language cultural sphere that transcended state boundaries and integrated a spectacularly vibrant Eurasia that is invisible from published sources alone Through a high cultural complex that he terms the Persian cosmopolis or Persianate sphere Pickett argues that an intersection of diverse disciplines shaped geographical trajectories across and between political states In Polymaths of Islam he paints a comprehensive colorful and often contradictory portrait of mosque and state in the age of empire

Tulips in Bloom Gabriel McGuire, Chris Fort, Naomi Caffee, Emily Laskin, Samuel Hodgkin, Ali F. İğmen, 2024-11-25 Prompted by the need for accessible teaching materials on Central Asian literature and history this anthology surveys the literature of modern Central Asia from the late 19th century to the present Genres range from oral literature and folk tales to essays prose drama and poetry The anthology is divided into five sections oral literature pre Revolutionary written literature Soviet literature through the Stalin era Soviet literature of the post Stalin era and literature of contemporary Central Asia Each section is preceded by a short critical introduction and includes representative examples from multiple languages and regions The geographic focus of the anthology is on literature from the territories of the post Soviet republics of Central Asia Kazakhstan Turkmenistan Kyrgyzstan Tajikistan and Uzbekistan together with the adjacent regions of Xinjiang Afghanistan and the Caucasus
