Muslim World:

A History of the Muslim World Michael Cook, 2024-05-07 In Michael Cook's words this book is about a substantial slice of human history delimited by a particular cultural characteristic adherence to Islam in some form or other A commitment to Islam makes a difference Wherever a society and its rulers have come to be Muslim this has meant a major discontinuity with its pre Islamic past and a significant expansion of its relations with the wider Muslim world Starting in the pre Islamic Middle East Cook returns a sense of wonder to how Muhammad could not only become a prophet of a new monotheistic religion but also unite the Arab tribes behind it and create a state that would conquer much of the territory that belonged to the Byzantines and the Sasanians the two empires that had balanced power in the region for hundreds of years Exploring the high culture of the Abbasids Cook then charts the disintegration of the Caliphate and the brief rise of the Fatimids and the Mongols of the Steppe He covers the Ottomans Turkish Safavids Iranian Mughals India and ventures to East Africa Madagascar Somalia Southeast Asia and many places between An epilogue gestures to major themes in the post 1800 world
