the time It was said she had been brutally jilted by her cousin Rutland Whitney and that she married this unknown man from the West out of bravado She was a restless headstrong girl even then who liked to astonish her friends Later when I knew her she was always doing something unexpected She gave one of her town houses for a Suffrage headquarters produced one of her own plays at the Princess Theater was arrested for picketing during a garment makers strike etc I am never able to believe that she has much feeling for the causes to which she lends her name and her fleeting interest She is handsome energetic executive but to me she seems unimpressible and temperamentally incapable of enthusiasm Her husband's quiet tastes irritate her I think and she finds it worth while to play the patroness to a group of young poets and painters of advanced ideas and mediocre ability She has her own fortune and lives her own life For some reason she wishes to remain Mrs James Burden As for Jim no disappointments have been severe enough to chill his naturally romantic and ardent disposition This disposition though it often made him seem very funny when he was a boy has been one of the strongest elements in his success He loves with a personal passion the great country through which his railway runs and branches His faith in it and his knowledge of it have played an important part in its development He is always able to raise capital for new enterprises in Wyoming or Montana and has helped young men out there to do remarkable things in mines and timber and oil If a young man with an idea can once get Jim Burden's attention can manage to accompany him when he goes off into the wilds hunting for lost parks or exploring new canyons then the money which means action is usually forthcoming Jim is still able to lose himself in those big Western dreams
