Tracing the (Post)Apartheid Novel beyond 2000 Danyela Dimakatso Demir, Olivier Moreillon, 2023-12-01 This anthology comprises of interviews with contemporary South African authors offering vignettes of their lives and summaries of their works In curating this book

Danyela Demir and Olivier Moreillon step beyond pure literary theory and analysis. They welcome the authors to speak and assess the literary panorama in which they live and co-create. However, Demir and Moreillon also trace concepts and terms that describe the current South African literature, such as post-apartheid literature and literature beyond 2000. By adopting a world literary approach to post-apartheid literature, this book contributes to debates on contemporary South African writing. In addition, Tracing the Post-Apartheid Novel Beyond 2000 seeks to raise awareness of the imbalance in both critical and public attention between literary big names such as Andr  P. Brink, J. M. Coetzee, Nadine Gordimer, and Zakes Mda, who are popular worldwide, and the younger and newer generation of South African writers who go largely unnoticed. Print edition not for sale in Sub-Saharan Africa.

Decolonising My Body Afua Hirsch, 2023-10-19. A 2023 POLITICAL BOOK OF THE YEAR. WATERSTONES GROUND BREAKING. Bernardine Evaristo: UNIVERSAL AND TIMELY. Elif Shafak: IMPORTANT. Sathnam Sanghera: A GENEROUS OFFERING. Nana Darko Sekiyamah: QUIETLY RADICAL. Evening Standard: INTIMATE. Guardian: I LEARNT A LOT. Gillian Anderson: What can ancestral practices teach us about how to live fuller lives today? Upon turning forty, Afua Hirsch had an encounter that forever altered her preconceived notions of ancestry and body image, making her question everything from body modification rituals such as tattoos and piercings to the foundations of sexuality as well as attitudes towards puberty, ageing, and death. This book charts her year-long journey of radical unlearning. Bringing together global scholarship on the ground, reportage, personal anecdotes, and interviews with beauty experts, practitioners, and service users, she reassesses notions of body image beyond those of the colonial patriarchal gaze. Decolonising My Body is a powerful excavation of the Eurocentric beauty standards that have long shaped how, in particular, those from the Global Majority are perceived and view themselves. Taking us from puberty to end of life, Hirsch shows us that the ways in which we adorn and present ourselves have spiritual implications and shape the possibilities we see for ourselves in the world. These insights and discoveries will empower you to reconnect with your own ancestry, better understand the link between beauty, history, and respectability politics, and liberate yourself from mainstream standards and systems that aren't serving you. Co-host of the LOYALTY podcast with Peter Frankopan.

Can't Find My Way Home Martin Torgoff, 2004-05-13

Can't Find My Way Home is a history of illicit drug use in America in the second half of the twentieth century and a personal journey through the drug experience. It's the remarkable story of how America got high: the epic tale of how the American Century transformed into the Great Stoned Age. Martin Torgoff begins with the avant garde worlds of bebop jazz and the emerging Beat writers who embraced the consciousness altering properties of marijuana and other underground drugs. These musicians and writers midwived the age of marijuana in the 1960s even as Timothy Leary and Richard Alpert later Ram Dass discovered the power of LSD ushering in the psychedelic era. While President John Kennedy proclaimed a New Frontier and NASA journeyed to the moon, millions of young Americans began discovering their own new frontiers on a voyage to inner space. What had been the province of a fringe avant garde only a decade earlier became a mass movement that affected and altered mainstream America. And so America sped through the century dropping acid and eating magic mushrooms at home, shooting heroin and ingesting amphetamines in Vietnam, snorting cocaine in the disco era, smoking crack cocaine in the devastated inner cities of the 1980s, discovering MDMA Ecstasy in the rave culture of the 1990s. Can't Find My Way Home tells this extraordinary story by weaving together first person accounts and historical background into a narrative vast in scope yet rich in intimate detail. Among those who describe their experiments with consciousness are Allen Ginsberg, Timothy Leary, Robert Stone, Wavy Gravy, Grace Slick, Oliver Stone, Peter Coyote, David Crosby and many others from Haight Ashbury to Studio 54 to housing projects and rave warehouses. But Can't Find My Way Home does not neglect the recovery movement, the war on drugs and the ongoing debate over drug policy. And even as Martin Torgoff tells the story of his own addiction and recovery, he neither romanticizes nor demonizes drugs. If he finds them less dangerous than the moral crusaders say they are, he also finds them less benign than advocates insist. Illegal drugs changed the cultural landscape of America and they continue to shape our country with enormous consequences. This ambitious, fascinating book is the story of how that happened.
