A World of Strangers Nadine Gordimer,2012-03-15

Toby Hood a young Englishman shuns the politics and the causes his liberal parents passionately support Living in Johannesburg as a representative of his family s publishing company Toby moves easily carelessly between the complacent wealthy white suburbs and the seething vibrantly alive black townships His friends include a wide variety of people from mining directors to black journalists and musicians and Toby s colonial style weekends are often interspersed with clandestine evenings spent in black shanty towns Toby s friendship with Steven Sithole a dashing embittered young African touches him in ways he never thought possible and when Steven s own sense of independence from the rules of society leads to tragedy Toby s life is changed forever

A Sport of Nature Nadine Gordimer,1988-03-01

A moving powerful book that in a career rich with distinguished works could well be considered her masterpiece Publishers Weekly Hillela is Nadine Gordimer s sport of nature a spontaneous mutation a new type of untainted person she is seductive and intuitively gifted for life A Sport of Nature is the bold sweeping story of her rise from obscurity to an unpredictable kind of political power Abandoned by her mother Hillela is left to be raised by her two aunts in South Africa At Olga s she might have acquired a taste for antiques and a style of dress to please a suitable husband At Pauline s she might have developed a social conscience But Hillela s betrayal of her position as a surrogate daughter so shocks both families that at seventeen she is cast adrift Swiftly and perilously her life opens out She lives as a footloose girl among political exiles on a beach in East Africa drifting between jobs and lovers and finally becomes the wife of a black revolutionary Personal tragedy is ultimately the catalyst for her political development leading her into a heroic role in the overthrow of apartheid This is the largest most reverberant work of fiction we have had yet from one of the world s master novelists
