Orchard Of The Crescent Moon:

Orchard of the Crescent Moon , Orchard of the Crescent Moon ,1989 A Century of Welsh Myth in Children's Literature Donna R. White,1998-04-08 Myth legend and folklore have been entrenched in children s literature for several centuries and continue to be popular Some of the most ancient traditional tales still extant come from the Celtic cultures of France and the British Isles whose languages are among the oldest in Europe Among these tales are four native Welsh legends collectively known as the Mabinogi which were first translated into English in 1845 by Lady Charlotte Guest Numerous children s books have been based on the Mabinogi since then and many have received awards and critical acclaim Because these books are written for children they are not necessarily faithful retellings of the original tales Instead authors have had to select certain elements to include and others to exclude This book examines how authors of children s fantasy literature from the 19th century to the present have adapted Welsh myth to meet the perceived needs of their young audience The volume begins with a summary of the four principle tales of the Mabinogi Pwyll Prince of Dyfed Branwen Daughter of Llyr Manawydan Son of Llyr and Math Son of Mathonwy Books based on the Mabinogi generally fall into two categories retellings of the myths and original works of fantasy partially inspired by the Welsh tales Beginning with Sidney Lanier s The Boy s Mabinogion the first part of this book examines versions of the myths published for children between 1881 and 1988 The second part discusses imaginative literature that borrows elements from the Mabinogi including Alan Garner s The Owl Service which won a Carnegie medal and Lloyd Alexander s Chronicles of Prydain the final volume of which received the ALA Newbery Award for outstanding children s book Soothing Bedtime Stories for Stressed Out Adults

At the Frontiers of Everyday Life Hande Gülen, Ceyda Sungur, Adem Yeşilyurt, 2023-12-05

The book provides a critical analysis of the geographies of everyday life, looking at how spatial practices craft wiggle room to cope with the boundaries saturated by normativity, power relations, and inequalities. It explores the possibilities for making do with the everyday practices forming a way of living in cramped spaces. In this respect, early career researchers and activists share their fieldwork experiences through an intersectional lens based on emerging research methodologies and scholar activist practices. From their own vantage point, they look at their own contexts, practices, and research subjects at the level of everyday life. Spatial practices and place-based imaginaries from France, Finland, and Spain to Turkey and South Africa present a wide range of non-counter-hegemonic yet enabling practices for transformation in everyday life. The contributors, trained in a variety of convergent disciplines concerned with everyday life and space, geography, geopolitics, architecture, urban planning, sociology, political sciences, discuss scholar activist methodologies during the current crisis in contemporary academia, reflect on their research methodologies and research experiences, and inquire into the ways of embodied negotiations for agency, survival, and care. A group of early career researchers and activists came together to seek out the possibilities of transformative change in everyday life during the peak periods of COVID-19. When researchers and activists were forced to stay at home in isolation, the authors met up online to discuss their subjectivities, self-reflexively to challenge the distance between the researcher and the field. The book is the outcome of their collective production based on numerous meetings, writing workshops, and creative debates.

There's Magic All Around Us Michael Larson, 2006-05

I have always wanted to be a journalist. Even as a boy, I would get my mother to drive me into town to pick up sheets of newsprint at the local weekly newspaper shop Back home with these sheets I would sit at the kitchen table or at the desk in my bedroom creating newspapers and magazines I wrote such scintillating prose as My grandpa tells me he can t let his sheep get sick My grandpa says a sick sheep is a dead sheep In some cases I would make extra copies of my publications and send them to my aunts and uncles and suggest that they might want to subscribe at a reasonable rate of course
